

Meredith Fischer Named Homemaker of Tomorrow

Meredith Fischer is Ashland's 1964 Homemaker of Tomorrow. She achieved the highest score here in a written knowledge and attitude examination given Dec. 8, 1963. General Mills, Inc., sponsor of the program, will award her a "Homemaker of Tomorrow" pin to signify her achievement, and her test paper will be entered in competition for state honors.

The state Homemaker of Tomorrow will be awarded a $1,500 college scholarship and will be named a national finalist.

In the spring the state Homemakers of Tomorrow will go to Williamsburg, Va., Washington, D.C., and New York City. The trip will be climaxed with the naming of the 1964 All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow. Her scholarship will be increased to $5,000. National runners-up will receive $4,000, $3,000, and $2,000 scholarships, respectively.

Meredith enrolled in Ashland High last September after having attended school in California and Virginia.

She is on the honor roll and a member of the Art Service Corps. She plans to attend S.O.C. and the University of Oregon for special training in interior design.

Don Scripser, "the man behind the scenes," has been elected as The Boy of the Month for December. The Student Council chose Don for this honor because of his work on the senior play as assistant stage manager. The other nominee, Bill Jury, was mentioned for this award for his good record in Football and Basketball.

Fifty-Seven Students Chosen For Saturday Classes at SOC

Fifty-seven Ashland High students have been chosen to take the Saturday Classes at Southern Oregon College. These classes are part of the Able and Gifted Student Program and are taught by members of the college faculty.

Fam Deano, Mandy Duty, and Marcy Rucker have been selected for the Art Class. This course involves an investigation of the physical properties and aesthetic qualities of a wide variety of art materials. The class is aimed at understanding and appreciating the "contemporary image" in art and include a program of studio work in drawing, collage, and oil painting.

Kandy Kurthase, Kathy Rucker, and Kathy Tilford have been selected for Expository Writing with Contemporary Values. This class is designed for students interested in the Humanities and in the Social Sciences and will consist of short papers and discussions concerning "Man in an Age of Science," "Man and Society," and "Man and the Humanities."

Charles Moore, Edith Morrill, Clyde Nelson, Jan Susee, and John Williams are taking a course in Business and Society which stresses the understanding of business as an important part of society. The roles, functions, effect, and purposes of business are discussed from the standpoint of the consumer and the owner.

Those students taking Creative Writing are Cathy Christy, Meredith Fischer, Chris Hoberg, Tim Thompson, and Marcy Tretaven. This course is designed to give students practice in different forms of writing such as poetry and short story. The students are presented with various techniques of writing and then practice some of these techniques.

Ken Baker, Diane Benson, Mary Brostad, Linda Brown, Dolly Byrd, Sue Conner, Amy Helm, Carol Pennington, Linda Prescott, and Dave White are taking World Literature which gives the student an opportunity to interpret and discuss various books which have influenced Western thinking.

Continued on page 2

Thespians Hold Induction Jan. 10

Ashland High's Thespian Troupe has been enlarged by twelve members. At a formal induction ceremony held January 10th these people were accepted into troupe 954: Marcy Treaven, Linda Prescott, Carolyn Wolfe, Cathy Christie, Terry Barraclough, Gretchen Graham, Susan Hess, Judy Fremd, Don Scripser, Carol Pennington, Trudge Lewis, and Ella Knechtel.

Senior Class President, ASB Leader Win Elks' Youth Leadership Awards

Connie Felger and John Yaple took top honors in the Elks' Leadership Contest. Their brochures will be sent to the State Association Youth Activities Committee for state competition.

Connie, Ashland High School's

Student Body president, won first place in the girls' division. She is a member of the National Honor Society, International Relations League, Student Council, Pep Club, and annual staff. Connie has also received the D.A.R.

award, attended Girls' State, and participates in the Able and Gifted Student program at Southern Oregon College.

John, the first place winner in the boys' competition, is the president of the senior class. He is a one year letterman in wrestling and a two year letterman in football. He was chosen for the All-Conference first team offensive and defensive football squads this past season. During the summer John was elected County Coroner and State Senator at Boys' State. He is also a member of the Student Council and of Letterman's Club.

Diane Williams placed second and Trudge Lewis third in the girls' competition. In the boys' division Tim Thompson placed second and Joe Raynes third. Other student contestants were Ron Boyce and Terry Skibby in the boys' division and Linda Leigh, Kay Newton, Kathy Tilford and Marcy Treaven for the girls' division.

Susan Conner Wins Award

Sue Conner was named Girl of the Term by the Ashland Business and Professional Women's Club. She received a pin which signifies this honor from Kathy Tilford, past recipient of the honor.

Sue was named Girl of the Term because of her work as accompanist for the chorus, as treasurer for the National Honor Society, and as a member of the Ungraded English class. She has attended the Saturday classes for the Gifted and Able Students for the past two years; she also teaches three piano students. Sue is also very active in church and community affairs.

JOHN YAPLE

CONNIE FELGER