

Awards, Scholarships

Master of Ceremonies Alan Engstrom presided at the annual awards assembly last Wednesday in the gym. At this time, the 1967-1968 student council officers were officially sworn in and numerous awards and scholarships were presented.

Ana Colwell presented the club-of-the-year trophy to Linda Roberts, Future Business Leaders of America president. AFS student Lilette Tambabagan, Philippines, presented Ashland High with her country's flag in return student body president Kathy Neal presented an American flag to Lilette.

Several national organizations honored five graduating seniors. Danforth Foundation "I Dare You" awards were presented to Julie Cox and Dave Work. Paula Hoffman and Craig Korhase were presented American Legion Merit Awards. Carolyn Hassell, whose Voice of Democracy speech won the AHS award and later placed in district competition, was honored by the V.F.W.

Several teachers presented awards to outstanding students. Ginny Lawrence received the Eric Allen Journalism award. Curtis White received the National Math Test award. Judi Nilsson and Gary McGraw received Oregon Chemical Society awards. The Bausch & Lomb science medal was presented to Dave Work.

Order of Gregg Artists short-hand fluency awards were presented to Debbie Dillon, Becky MacCollister, Margaret White, Nicki Benbrook, Ruth Evans, Linda Fremd, Bonnie Graber, Bonnie Green, Sharon Haas, Paddy Oakley, Jane Turner, Tricia Walker, and Kathy Zollman.

Ginny Lawrence and Lisa Tumbleston were presented Valletria and Salutatorian awards. Ginny also received the Reader's Digest award.

Awards by various organizations included Scott Weaver, U. S. National Bank Scholarship; Steve Rice, Rogue Valley Women's Club Scholarship; Chris Wiley and Dave Work, OSU Dad's Club awards; and Olin Ford Bellview PTA scholarship. AHS scholarship winners included Carolyn Hassell, Girls' League; and Steve Bucklew, industrial-fine arts.

SOC winners are: Darlene Beck, Julie Cox, Penny Fletcher, Craig Kirby, Doug Kirby, Kathy McGuire, and Moya Sander. University of Oregon winners are: Mary Alley, Susan Beecher, Jan Gray, Ginny Lawrence, Bill Pettit, and Cathy Phelps. Olin Ford, Jon Holland and Mike Krug received music scholarships to SOC.

Other students receiving scholarships to Oregon colleges and universities include: Monte Bradshaw, Willamette University; Barbara Sorenson, Judson Baptist College; Margaret Whitlock, University of Portland. Out-of-state winners include Craig Korhase, Seattle Pacific; Teresa Spence, University of Denver; and Lisa Tumbleston, Barnard College (Columbia University).

Both Joey Williamson and Gene Wiley received scholarship offers from Brigham Young University, Oregon State University, University of Oregon, and University of Washington. Joey received an additional offer from Washington State University, while SOC offered Gene a scholarship.

Students, Clubs Honored

Future Business Leaders of America have recently been named Club of the Year by Interclub Council.

Under the leadership of Lin-

Susan Beecher received scholarships from Antioch University, Mills College, and Stanford University. Cathy Phelps received scholarships from Stephens College and Wisconsin State University.

Honors-at-entrance award winners include Tom Berninghausen and John Matteson, SOC; and Lois Lahr, Seattle Pacific.

Beauty School tuition scholarship winners are LaDessa Byington, Bonnie Lewis, Barbara Swink, and Jackie Thompson.

Clubs and Organization award winners include majorettes, Julie Cox and Debbie Evans; outstanding Grizzettes, Theresa Meyers, Georgianna Sikkler, and Debbie Slapnicka; and FTA summer conference on teaching scholarship, Laura Rose.

Drama Guild awards were presented to Susan Beecher, Jan Gray, Francine Conner, and Bob Gruber.

Jon Holland was named the outstanding AHS bandsman. Dick Calhoun, Olin Ford and Carlita Holland received band service awards. Five band camp scholarships were also presented.

Joey Williamson was awarded the Booster Club outstanding athlete trophy. Gene Willis received the KOIN radio station athlete-of-the-year nomination.

Girls' Recreation Association selected Cathy Phelps as its outstanding senior girl. Participation pins were presented to other members.

da Roberts, president, and Mrs. Jean Fowler, advisor, the club has been active throughout the summer and school year.

During the summer months the club was able to send Linda Roberts, president, and Joyce Taylor, vice-president, as delegates to the National Convention in New Orleans. The club worked during the school year to send these two delegates and were thus able to pay the entire transportation fee. On the 4th of July the club had a cotton candy booth in Lithia Park. This project was determined a great success.

In September the club reorganized and resumed the Continental Breakfast each morning throughout the school year. In October the club began work on the Grizzly Guide student directory. Also at this time the club began preparations for the organizing of the CBS store refreshment stand. This stand was to enable students to purchase snacks during lunch time. Also in October, the club submitted a float

SENIORS WIN S.S.S.

The Seniors won SSS this year and received a half day from school on May 25.

The seniors went to Jackson Hot Springs at noon and participated in organized recreation until 3:30. Recreation included pie-eating contests, three-legged, sock, and orange races. Additional contests included a tug-of-war and egg toss. One contest was a song contest with original songs sung by the seniors.

Monte Bradshaw (right) and trio Lynette Cornwall, Cathy Phelps, and Barb Sorenson (left), perform their musical talents in the All-School Talent Show held May 26.

Talent Show Presents Variety

The talent show was presented on May 26, 1967 at Ashland High School Gymnasium, and consisted of many types of talent.

Judy Phelps and Bruce Oden acted as masters of ceremonies.

The show began with the introduction of an unusual dance routine, consisting of a group of senior girls, led by Kathy O'Hara, entitled, "I'm going to wash that man right out of my hair." Next was "Michael, row the boat ashore." "My Love" and "Once," which were presented by a trio of Lynette Cornwall, Barb Sorenson, and Cathy Phelps.

These acts were followed by Monte Bradshaw on the violin, accompanied by Linda Green on the piano. She played the selection, "Somewhere My Love."

Greg Lewis played his guitar and sang "The Seine" and "Jamaica Farewell," followed by a dance routine by Lilette Tambabagan, Ashland High School's AFS student, to the music of "Binau-an."

A "Banua" and "500 Miles" by sophomores Jon Olsson, Lon Gossage and John Perry was followed by a dance routine by Sharon Kitzman to the music of Herb Alpert's recording of "Whipped Cream."

Lynn Bassonette sang, while accompanying himself on the guitar, songs entitled "Summer-time," "Unhained Melody," "Take Your Time" and "Little Black Egg."

Closing the day's entertainment was Lynette Cornwall and Barb Sorenson singing "He's Everything To Me."

representing their club in the Homecoming Parade. During the month of December, FBLA purchased presents to send to the Fairview Hospital in Salem.

The club was active not only in club projects but also in school activities. FBLA was responsible for concessions during basketball season and performed a skit at a student body pep assembly in February. During the month of March the club put up the monthly calendar in the study hall.

Penny Fletcher Named 4-H Winner

Senior Penny Fletcher will represent the state of Oregon in home improvement at the national convention of 4-H in Chicago next November.

Penny was selected on the basis of her record book, which in her field was best in state, and contained the following information: clippings, pictures, her cost records, records of her 4-H projects, her principal's and county agent's recommendations, and a 1500 to 2000-word story. Penny submitted her book on the state and county level in home improvement. She also submitted record books on the county level in Forestry and Dairy.

Penny has been active in 4-H for many years. Her activities include: Forestry, Knitting, Dairy, Home Improvement, and Teen Council. Her awards and honors include: Champion Senior Jersey Showman at the state fair, County medals in Dairy and Forestry, chosen for competition on the dairy judging team at Pacific International, and the record book contest on the county level.

President of Future Teachers of America holds Penny's list of activities. Her other activities include Grizzettes and Inter-Club Council.

Penny has received a full tuition and fees and a four-year Carpenter scholarship to SOC. She plans to major in elementary education.

In Chicago, Penny will stay one week. She will be competing for six $500 scholarships, which are given in each of the 25 divisions. 25 representatives are chosen from each state to represent each field.

Girls Honor Miss McLarnan

Miss Mary McLarnan was honored at a surprise party May 22, at 3:30 in the school library, by the girls of her homemaking classes.

Miss McLarnan was greeted at the door with the traditional shouts of "Surprise!" and a candy-cane carnation corsage which was pinned on her shoulder.

Miss McLarnan, retiring home economics teacher, stands before her cake at the surprise party given in her honor.

The refreshment table was attractively decorated with lilacs and candles, two large sheet cakes, inscribed "From Your Girls," and cookies and punch.

Miss McLarnan was seated at the table of honor and was served, while Barbie Sorenson and Lynette Cornwall provided the entertainment by singing two songs.

Sandy Westgaard presented Miss McLarnan with a gift of a silver dish engraved "From the Sophomores, Junior and Senior Classes of '67." Denis Conklin, Barbara Swink, and Jackie Thompson organized the party.

About 75 people were at the party, including the faculty and some former students.

After her retirement in June, Miss McLarnan plans to travel. She will leave for a trip to Seattle the week after school closes, and will be there most of the summer. Miss McLarnan said that she also hopes to take a trip to Hawaii with her niece the latter part of the summer. After her busy vacation, she plans to spend time with her family.