'67 Homecoming Court Selected

NANCY WYATT

DIAN DEMO

Lettermen Elect Five Srs.

The 1967 Homecoming court. which consists of five seniors, was recently selected by the lettermen. They are Dian Demo, Diana Calhoun, Susy Riffe, Chris Woods and Nancy Wyatt.

Chris Woods and Nancy Wyatt.

One of the five princesses will be chosen to reign as queen of the 1967 Homecoming foothall game. She will be crowned by the Lettermen club president, John Zupan, during half-time entertainment. The queen will be an homored guest at the Homecoming Dance immediate-iy following the game.

The five princesses were resent at last night's bonfire, and will also appear in the tra-ditional Homecoming parade ditional Hom-

Each member of the court will be chosen not only for her beauty, but also on the basis of how active she has been inside and outside of school.

Honor Society Student

Dian Demo, the first candi-date for queen, has been an active member of National active member of National Honor Society in both her Junior and Senior years at Ashland High She has also been a student council representative for the past two years. In her Junior year, Dian was chairman of a Christmas toy drive sponsored by the atudent council. She was named as Citizen of the Six Weeks for her work on the toy drive. Dian was also thairman of archbearers for graduation ceremonies last year. Outside of school, Dian was named the 1967-68 District No. B DeMolay Sweetheart. In her Senior year, Dian the Six DeMolay Sweetheart. In her Senior year, Dian the Senior year, Dian was named the 1967-68 heart. In her Senior year, Dian is the Senior class secretary and a member of the Hope Corps.

Diana Calhoun, the second member of the court, has been an active member of her church as a choir member and a piano accompanist in various church activities. In school, Diana is an active member of the Fuan active member of the Fu-ture Business Leaders of America and is interested in the Hope Corps. Diana was a Grizzette member during her Junior year and she plans to join again when basketball season starts.

Susy Riffe has been very ac-tive since she moved to Ash-land in her sophomore year from Mahomel Seymour Senior High in Illinois. Susy has been a member of the debate team in both her Junior and Senior years, as well as belonging to Thespians, Drama Club, National Honor Society, American reation Association. While she Field Service, and Girls' Rec-was a Junior, Susy was a stu-dent council representative and she is presently a member of Humanities Seminar. She was also in Ski club during her sophomore, was sophomore year.

Chris Woods has been a member of the Ashland High School marching band for two years and a member of orchestra for one year. In her Junior year, Chris was a student council representative and was named "Miss Computer" for the Senior Class of '67 Mardi Gras Carnival. At the present, Chris is interested in the Hope Corps. Corps.

Nancy Wyatt, who came to Ashland from Arcada, Califor-nia, is the other member of the homecoming court. Nancy has been an active member of Thespians club and has taken an active part in class activi-ties. She also belongs to Job's Daughters.

Daughters.

This is the second year in a row in which a junior has not been on the Homecoming Court. Members of the Lettermen's club are requested not to select a member of the rally squad to compete for Homecoming queen.

COLLEGE VISITATIONS SCHEDULED

AHS Senior students will attend a State College visi-tation on Wednesday, No-vember 15 at 8:45.

vember 15 at 8:45.

Representatives from from Oregon's state supported colleges will attend the visitation. Representatives will be present from these colleges: Oregon State University, University of Oregon, Southern Oregon College, Oregon College of Education, East-ern Oregon College, and Oregon Technical Institute.

CHRIS WOODS

SUSY RIFFE

ASHLAND HIGH SCHOOL, ASHLAND, ORE.

FRI OCT 20, 1962

Elks Forms Due Dec.

Approximately 15 Ashland High School senior boys and pirts have entered the Elks Leadership Contest, according to Mr. Leybold, who heads the contest.

The contest, held annually, is sponsored by the Oregon State Elks Association. It is not a scholarship contest. Entrants are judged for their leadership abilities only.

Elka Youth Leadership conlests are held on a school level, district level, state level, and national level. They offer a chance for the student with strong leadership shilltles to win scholarships.

On all four levels, first, second, and third prizes are given to both boys and girls. On a state level, the prize is $1025 to the first place boy and girl, $500 to the second place boy and girl, $250 to the third place boy and girl, $250 to the third place boy and girl, $150 to the fourth hoy and girl, $150 to the fourth place boy and girl, and $100 to the fifth place winners. Leadership ability of the applicant is expressed in the pamphlet which he or she sub-mits. The dates these pamph-lets are due are: Dec. 9, school level; Jan. 29, state level; Feb. 17, state level; and April 6 for finalists in the state.

plicant is expressed in the

Named To Jury Sixteen

Ashland High School students selected for the 1967-68 Juve-nile Jury were announced Wed-nesday, October 11. The 12 students were chosen from 42 applications by a downtown judging committee.

judging committee.

The members are: Sophomorex, Rhonda Demo, Bruce Lorber, Laurie Nye, and Doug Alexander, Juniors, Heidi Hooper and Loy Dale: and Seniors, Susan Jones, Bill Kuhlwein, Bob Goldsmith, Joan Hardesty, Debbie McMonigal, and Mike Grandee. Gandee.

Gandee.
Those selected as alternates are: Seniora, Diana Calboun, Paddy Oakley and Christy Revel, and Sophomore David Pheips.
The 12 selected, plus 12 students from Southern Oregon College, will all in on all trials involving juveniles Thursday nights at 7:00 p.m. in the court-house.

house.

A six-man jury, composed of three ashland High School students and three Southern Oregon Collegs students, tries each case. The foreman of the lury gives the jury's recommendation to the presiding judge, who then makes the final decision. The judge's decision usually, but not always,

agrees with that of the stu-

The student jury also decides on the penalties for juveniles on the penalties for juveniles who are found guilty. These penalties must also be approved by the judge. At a typical ses-sion of the jury, 15 cases are dealt with fifth year. It was started in November of 1963 by Richard Cottle, who was the municipal judge at that time. In 1966, Gerald Scanneil became judge and has continued the program. The public is invited to at-

The public is invited to at-tend all Juvenile Jury meetings

Selects Committee Oden Boy Of Month

Bruce Oden was honored by the student council as Boy of the Month for September

Bruce was nominated by the Boy of the Month Committee as a result of his efforts as senior class president and for the determination he displayed in football. He was responsible for the success of a number of senior money-making projects including several car washes for the success of a senior money-making projects including several car washes and a booth in Lithia Park on the Fourth of July During the summer Bruce attended the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and later a student council workshop at Reedsport

Early in the football season Bruce broke his nose in prac-tice. Two weeks later he sustained a chin injury which required six stitches. Undaunted, quired six stitches. Unda-he returned to practice to tear the ligaments and car-tilage in his left knee. As a result, Bruce has a cast on his left leg and will miss the re-mainder of the football season. The Boy of the Month award is designed to honor boys who make noteworthy contributions to Ashland High School. The student council makes the se-lection hased on the recommen-dation of the Boy of the Month committee.

Members of the Boy of the Menthers of the Boy of the Month Committee are: Todd Merriman, chairman; Paul Brown, Janie Davis, Jim Dick erson. Leslie Houk, Susan Jones and Rick Walsh are: Todd

Debate Team Set

Ashbard High School's ad-Ashland High School's advanced debate learn leaves this Friday for Marshfield High School and the first major foreast burnament of the year. Twelve debaters, three senniors and nine juniors, will defend Ashland's claim to the South Coast Invitational Sweepstakes trophy. Ashlund won the sweepstakes last year, dominat-ing neurly every speech cate-and four-man debate is will alternately defend oppose the topic — Re-cel: that Congress should solved establish uniform regulations to courtoi criminal investigation orocedures.

Individual Speeches

individual speeches individual speech competition is held in addition to debating. Extemporaneous speakers Janie Smith, Kris Keil, Jim Work and Dave Galati will discuss United States current events in five to seven minute talks.

Problems of American youth is the impromptu topic. Im-promptu speakers Kathy Hill, Loy Dale and Jim Work have approximately 30 seconds to draw a problem and prepare a three to five minute speech.

Gordon Hester and Loy Dale represent AHS in the radio event, while Nancy Hormel is the sole AHS representative in poetry competition.

Oratory speakers must have their ten-minute talk memo-rized Jack Davis, Janie Smith, Kris Keil, and Jeff McCallum will present their orations at their numerous species masserized also.

Chris Houghton, Dave Galati and Gordon Hester, after-dinner speakers, must have their humorous speeches memo-

Humorous interpretation speakers Susan Rifle, Kathy Hill, Jeff McCallum, and Chris Houghton read their presentations from a prepared script.