

EIGHT NEW TEACHERS GRACE AHS HALLS

This year at Ashland High School we would like to welcome eight new teachers who have joined the teaching staff.

English Department:

New in the AHS English department this year is Barbara Murdock. This is her first year teaching. Besides teaching English, Miss Murdock teaches the speech classes. She graduated from the University of Washington and her hometown is Yakima, Washington. She noted "This area reminds me a lot of home and I am rapidly becoming an Ashland fan."

Clifford Brock is another new addition to the AHS English staff. Mr. Brock is also a first year teacher. He is the advisor for the Rogue News. He attended California State College, Fullerton. He noted, "Ashland is a great school."

A familiar face back in the English department is Mrs.

Students Active In Summer Vacation

Ashland High School students traveled both in the State and abroad this summer, going as near as Salem and as far as Europe.

The annual Girl's State Convention was held June 14-19 at Willamette University in Salem. Ashland's delegates were Cathi Galati and Sharon Silver. Miss Galati was elected governor at the convention, while Miss Silver was named as a senator.

Meanwhile, Boy's State took place June 14-20 at Oregon State University in Corvallis. Steve Asher, Jim Cady, Dee Christlieb, Kit Nidever, Jerry Scannell, and Tim Slapnicka represented Ashland High School.

Student body president Jerry Scannell, and Secretary Linda Brown, attended a student council workshop at Central Oregon Community College in Bend.

Eight delegate students attended a workshop at Lewis and Clark College in Portland. They were: Connie Bulkeley, Julie Davies, Bill Ellis, Cathi Galati, Pat Overland, Steve Parsons, Leslie Peterson, and Cynthia Ragland. Connie Bulkeley and Bill Ellis placed second in cross-examination style debate competition at the workshop.

By far the leading wanderers this past year were juniors

Debbie Tischauser and Nancy Bartlett. They left for Europe, where Miss Bartlett's father was on sabbatical leave from Southern Oregon College, on March 29. They visited England, France, Andorra, Spain, Italy, Liechtenstein, Germany, Switzerland, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, and the Soviet Union before returning home on July 29.

Other wanderers included Debi Gates and Jacque Leigh, who attended science workshops. Miss Gates attended one at University of Kansas, and Miss Leigh at the University of Washington.

Home Economics Department:

Sue Keller is AHS's new Home Economics teacher. She is a native of Seattle, Washington, and attained her degree from Oregon State University. Besides this being her first teaching job, she is also advisor for the Flag Girls.

Social Studies:

Richard Kromminga came to AHS from the Ashland Junior High School to teach U.S.
