Benton County Making Strides

auxiliary mill in the hills six miles northwest of Corvallis. Lumber will be hauled from this mill to the planer in town by a traction engine.
Benton county is the home of the China pheasant, and the greatest hatchery in the state, the famed Simpson farm, is located on the outskirts of Corvallis.
Building operations and realty have been active during the past year. The development of new industries and the coming of the Oregon Electric are expected to better matters very materially in this regard. The deposits in the two Corvallis banks amount to $1,000,000.
The new Commercial Club quarters, costing $5000, are the pride of the city. Tom Richardson recently made the statement that they were the best in the state outside of Portland. The Commercial Club has become especially active of late, and is taking steps toward an extended publicity movement to show the advantages of this county.

Smithson Beats World's Record

Forest Smithson, the Olympic champion hurdler, lowered the world's record for the 50-yard low hurdles at Seattle last week. His time was 5 4-5 seconds, one-fifth lower than the previous record.
Forest C. Smithson, Portland's world-beating athlete who broke another record in the big indoor meet at Seattle last week, is the pride of Oregon's athletes, and best of all he is an OAC boy. This clever performer, a Portland boy born and reared, is out to win the American record for the 120-yard hurdles this summer. He already holds the world's record for 110 meters, which he made at London last July, but the American record is accredited to Shaw. Smithson is anxious that Shaw, Johnny Garrells, Rand and other Eastern cracks in this event shall come to the A. A. U. at Seattle this summer, for he is determined to defeat Shaw and take his record away from him.
Forest Smithson is the greatest hurdler the world has ever seen, and Johnny Garrells, one of Smithson's rivals for the hurdling honors, but also one of the finest young fellows in athletics today, says Smithson is the best man he has ever met, and Garrells has defeated Shaw, the record holder, on several occasions. Smithson defeated Shaw at London, and on that account is entitled to claim the premiership, for he has never been defeated at the hurdling racing game since he came into prominence as an athlete.
Smithson was sent to Seattle as the representative of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club, which splendid organization he also represented at London, and under the colors of which he will compete at all the big meets this summer.

Finest Turnout of Any Known Circus

The great Sells-Floto Shows Consolidated, which comes to Corvallis Friday, May 21, will bring special importations in the way of all kinds of new circus acts which have been secured, in conjunction with a long string of the pick of American performers.
Every department has been increased extensively, and it is claimed the exhibition of blooded horses is the best ever offered, among which are the wonderful Armour Grays, the Big Six, who have captured all of the prizes at the prominent horse shows. They are valued at $35,000.
The parade, said to be "the finest turnout of any circus has ever made in any country," will traverse the principal streets morning of show day.
The big picnic to be held at Ridders' grove June 5, by the United Artisans, Corvallis Assembly No. 23 promises to be an exceptionally pleasant affair. Lots of people are making preparations to be there and enjoy the fun.
Daily Gazette 50 cents per month.
