

CORVALLIS DAILY GAZETTE

Published every evening except Sunday. Office: 259-263 Jefferson street, corner Third street, Corvallis, Oregon. PHONE 210

Address all communications and make all remittances payable to the CORVALLIS GAZETTE.

In ordering changes of address, subscribers should always give old as well as new address.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES DAILY

Delivered by carrier, per week.....$ .15
By mail, one year, in advance..... .50
By mail, six months, in advance..... .25
By mail, one month, in advance..... .10

CORVALLIS WEEKLY GAZETTE

PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY

Entered at the postoffice at Corvallis, Oregon, as second class matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES

One year, in advance.....$2.00
Six months, in advance..... 1.00

CHAS. L. SPRINGER, Editor and Publisher.

TRAVELERS' GUIDE

Arrival and Departure of Trains UNION DEPOT, CORVALLIS R. C. LINVILLE, Agent

Table with columns: Arrive, Southern Pacific, Depart, Passenger, Freight, Corvallis & Eastern, Passenger east, west, east, Sunday Trains.

CORVALLIS POSTOFFICE

Opens 8 a. m., closes 6 p. m. Sundays and holidays, opens to a. m., closes 11 a. m.

Table with columns: Mails Open From, Mails Close For, Portland, Albany, Washington and Eastern states, California and points South, Philomath and Monroe, McMinnville and Weir, Mill City and way points, Philomath and Alsea, Monroe stage, Philomath stage.

MILLION PEOPLE COMING

"More people will visit the Northwest this year than in any previous five-year period," says James A. Wood, Director of Exploitation of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition. "My prediction is fully justified by the returns from our press clipping bureaus, the letters I receive and the reports from the transcontinental railroads and their connections. St. Paul and Minneapolis newspapers declare that more than a million travelers destined for Puget Sound and the Pacific Northwest will pass through the Twin Cities. The probable extent of the movement is greatly increased by reports from all the other big cities of the United States. More publicity has been given the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition during the past five months than was given any exposition held in this country since Chicago. Eastern railroad offices report a more general inquiry than was made concerning any other exposition. The movement is already on. It is estimated that fully 100,000 new people have come into Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia since March 15, largely drawn thither by the attractive home-seeker's rates. But the big movement begins with the first day of the exposition rates.

"In all our work of exploitation we have put the Pacific Northwest to front with the exposition as a great feature of a trip this year. Not one visitor in a hundred who comes to the exposition should be lacking in general information concerning conditions and opportunities in this and the bordering states and the province to the north. This work has been most effectively advanced by the publicity and passenger departments of the railroads and I want to say that the Northwestern representatives of the various lines are the most active, energetic and helpful bunch of men that ever got behind any sort of a project.

The exposition is complete and ready. Attention has been drawn from every quarter of the globe. The visitors and home-seekers are coming by the tens and hundreds of thousands and it up to the people of all parts of the Pacific Northwest to give them a welcome worth while."

An Inexpensive Session.

Auditing Clerk Corry, of the Secretary of State's has completed a computation of the special session of the Legislature, showing the session to have been the cheapest ever held in the state.

In round numbers, the session cost the state $4500, some $3000 cheaper than the estimate made during the session, and appropriated for the purpose. The principal saving was on the clerk hire, which amounted, all told, to about $120. The mileage and per diem of the members was approximately $2600.

Albany After Struble.

The Democrat says the Albany Commercial Club held a special session with Wallace R. Struble, the manager of the commercial club at Raymond, Wash., who has been warmly recommended as manager of the Albany Club by Manager Tom Richardson, of Portland. Mr Struble is an old newspaper man, years ago resident of Corvallis, and knows the Northwest thoroughly particularly the valley, a forcible and entertaining writer and a good speaker.

Daily Gazette 50 cents per month.

SOME ANCIENT HISTORY

An Old Copy of "the Hayseed" Reveals Former Doings at OAC.

A Junior Annual entitled, "The Hayseed" and published by the Junior students, in 1894 was found a short time ago by Mrs. Callahan among some of her relics of college days and by its discovery the honor of putting out the first Annual at this institution claimed by the class of 1900, has gone glimmering.

Of course it is unpleasant to have to make known to the world that such is the case, but the book found is, indeed, an interesting one, and students and faculty alike would be pleased to know something of it.

This first annual is entitled "The Hayseed" and is dedicated like this, "To every Hayseed in the state, this little book be dedicated." The staff was composed of seven men, three of whom, most of the students are acquainted with. Austin T. Buxton was Editor in Chief. He is now at the head of the State Grange and a member of the Board of Regents Frank E. Edward was Secretary. The Juniors and Seniors remember him as commandant of the regiment two years ago. He is now teaching chemistry in a California institution. The third man we know is John F. Allen, whom they gave the position of Chief musician. His occupation has changed since then for he is now the proprietor of a leading drug store in this city.

The Hayseed is an interesting volume and shows in many ways what the younger days of the college were, and how things were carried on at that time. There are photographs of the faculty, the different departments, student teams and many other interesting things. Cartoons are plentiful and the jokes are, indeed, funny from more than one point of view.—Barometer.

Bishop's Wife Ill

Mrs. Charles Scadding, wife of Bishop Scadding, is seriously ill at the Good Samaritan Hospital at Portland though latest accounts are such as to give her many friends encouragement. Tuesday morning she was operated on for appendicitis and it was some time before she recovered from the shock. Her physicians say she is getting on as well as can be expected, and they have strong hopes of her ultimate recovery.

HYDRAULIC WELL DRILLING

Powerful and rapid well machine run by gasoline engine.

Wind mill pump repairing, and drove wells a specialty.

Place your orders now before the season's rush work is on.

A. N. HARLAN Box 526 Corvallis, Oregon

Copyright 1909 by Hart Schaffner & Marx

EVERY day is a good clothes day for the man who puts on a suit or overcoat from this store; we make a business of dressing men correctly; the style, color, weave, pattern that is right for you; we are more anxious to help you buy than merely to make a sale. Naturally, if we're going to do business on this principle—putting your interests before ours, because that's the best way to preserve ours and make our business as strong as it can be—we've got to be as particular about what we buy as you are about what you buy. Our care for your interests must begin long before yours does. We've got to have the goods right, before we invite you to them.

Hart Schaffner & Marx Clothes are our choice because they're right; they're all-wool in quality, perfectly tailored, with linings, trimmings and all other materials the best possible. We offer you these clothes because they're the best clothes for you; the best clothes made anywhere on earth. We are working for ourselves as well as for you in bringing such clothes to you. The prices are low enough; such clothes as these are worth more than they cost; they're value-clothes.

We want you to know their merits by wearing them; it's the best service we can render you. Hart Schaffner & Marx suits and overcoats here $18 to $30.

This store is the home of the Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes

JOHN B. STETSON HATS

FLORSHEIM SHOES

J.M. Nolan & Son QUALITY STORE

CLUETT SHIRTS

ORIGINAL HOLE-PROOF SOCKS