Mrs. Bell Phillips is having a nice cement walk constructed in front of her property located on south Second street and occupied by the photograph gallery.

W. O. Heckert, of Eugene, was sailing around Corvallis yesterday evidently corraling material and other stuff to be used in the construction of the new school building for which he has the contract.

Lester Lilly, of Roseburg, and two sons, Clifton and Morrison, are visiting at the grandfather Lilly home and with other relatives and friends in the city. Lester was raised in this county and it is indeed strange why he wandered away from home.

Caleb Davis, jr. and Joe Smith returned yesterday from their fishing expedition. When asked as to the number of fish caught they angled the question by saying they had not studied the provisions of the new law. No doubt the table was well supplied.

Mark Adams came in from Alsea yesterday and reports the crop prospect looking fine. They have had plenty of rain there and with good soil everything was conducive to growth. Hay harvest has commenced and the farmer will be busy until the crop is garnered.

Rev. Geo. E. McDonald arrived in Corvallis this morning and will visit relatives and friends in this city until tomorrow. Mr. McDonald is on his way to Portland, where he will fill the pulpit of the First United Brethren church next Sunday morning and evening, he having been appointed pastor of that church at the conference held in Philomath last week. He will not take up the regular work, however, until his graduation from the U. B. seminary at Dayton, Ohio, next May.

The city was without water last night and in case a fire had broken out the town would have been absolutely without protection. Repairs were being made at the intake in the mountain and the water shut off and when the engine was fired up at the river it was discovered that the main was broken thus the connection was shut off at both ends of the line. Perhaps a little censure may be due to some one having the matter in charge for not seeing to the river connection before shutting off the main but having passed the critical period let all rejoice that we escaped the danger and remember that the water plant has ever been conducted on business principles. The people spend too much time finding fault with their neighbors instead of emulating their noble deeds thus making the world purer and better.

Mesdames Lake, Hout and Skelton represented the W. O. W. in the District Convention held at Albany yesterday returning on the evening train. Mrs. Skelton was honored by being elected secretary of the convention.

John Ingall and his auto passengers returned from the Brownsville reunion last night. They came by way of Peoria and being a tender-hearted fellow John did not disturb the peaceful slumber of the boatman but taking hold of the rope plied the water with the little canoe. The boat does not come to shore on the Benton county side and when the auto struck the water it took a submarine plunge into the Willamette, extinguished the spark and left the occupants sitting in the river a cable-tows length from shore. The passengers secured a private conveyance and landed in Corvallis at 2 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Wood went out to haul the machine to shore and pump the water from the cylinders.

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheney, Wash., was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A bad cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Croup and Whooping Cough it's supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

Unique Bids For Patronage

Competition between Western railroads for the bulk of travel to the Seattle Exposition has reached another stage in the official announcement of one that all its limited trains will be supplied with phonographs for the entertainment of passengers. Daily programmes of grand opera, selections and popular music are announced. On the dozen new trains put on recently by the railroads, other unique bids for patronage have been made.

One began to make a bid for the business by furnishing a table d'hote meal for $1—beginning with a cocktail and ending with a perfecto cigar—which cost nearly twice that amount.

Other roads followed suit and a second road announced that it had bought chicken farms potato farms and cows that give milk of the kind that makes cream, and the company also provides eggs stamped with the date of their "birth." A third announced the provision of women stenographers and a clothes-pressing attachment free of charge, and now the acme has been reached by adding the musical programmes.

A. C. Tunnison Is Accidentally Hurt

A. C. Tunnison, met with a severe accident on his farm south of the city this morning by being thrown in front of the sickle bar of a mowing machine.

He had just hitched up a span of colts to the mower, preparatory to going out, but before he could gather up the reins the horses started to run, throwing him over the sickle bar, which badly lacerated his leg and arm. Dr. Cathey, who was called, having to take ten stitches to close the wound in the leg, the flesh being torn from the bone, while it took five stitches to repair the injuries on the back of his hand.

The team fortunately ran into a tree just after starting or the results might have been much more serious; as it was the harness was broken but the horses were not hurt, and it is thought no permanent injury will follow the painful wounds received by Mr. Tunnison.

He had just returned yesterday from a four weeks visit to Eastern Oregon, his mother having died while he was there.
