SALEM MILL BURNED.

Loss on Buildings and Grain About

Salem, Or., Sept. 25 .- The mill and elevator warehouse of the Salem Flouring Mills Company, located at the corner of Commercial and Trade streets. were destroyed by fire at 4 o'clock this morning. The total loss is about $150,000, a large part of which will fall on farmers who had grain stored at the mills. There was over 125,000 bushels of wheat stored in the buildings, only about 25,000 bushels of Run Day and Evening Until October which belonged to the mill company. The fire was caused by a dust explosion near the cleaners on the third floor of the mill, and it spread rapidly.

The insurance on the mill company's buildings and machinery, which are almost a total loss, is about $60,000, while their value is placed at about $75,000. Only about 30,000 bushels of the stored grain was insured, so the loss to the owners is great. Considerable of the grain not damaged by water, it is thought, can be cleaned and sold for about half price, and the mill company will take immediate steps to save all that possibly can be saved.

The mill, which was run as an independent concern by men interested in the Portland flouring mills, may never be rebuilt, as the Portland Flouring Mills Company owns another mill in Salem. The fire was one of the largest ever seen in Salem.

So Says Goldwin Smith, Who Thinks Dewey Is Overestimated.

Toronto, Ont., Sept. 25 .- Goldwin Smith, writing in a local paper, says: "Nothing could show the extent to which the head of Columbia has been turned by the war more than her adoration of the hero Dewey. What did the hero Dewey and his comrades do? They sat in almost perfect safety and destroyed at long range a line of helpless tubs, with some hundreds of the poor Spaniards who manned them, and who alone had any opportunity of showing heroism on the occasion. So perfectly secure did the Americans feel that they adjourned to breakfast in the middle of their sport. There was among them a single casualty, and had they all gone tiger hunting one casualty at least probably would have occurred.

"For this, however, Dewey, is declared to be the equal of the great seamen who conquered in the terrible days of Aboukir, Copenhagen, Trafalgar. If he were so inclined he might probably he elected president of the United

"Canada cannot possibly take part in the celebration of Dewey's triumphs without evidence of discourtesy toward Spain, a friendly nation, which has lone Canada no wrong. Spain, let it be remembered, though deprived of her possessions in this hemisphere, is still a Mediterranean power, decayed at present, but capable of restoration. The British government will hardly thank the Canadian government for making her an implacable enemy." HOOTED OFF THE PLATFORM.

Was Too Much for His Hearers. Kansas City, Sept. 25 .- A dispatch to the Journal from Wichita, Kan., savs:

Ex-Congressman Jerry Simpson was hooted off the platform here this evening while addressing a local G. A. R. reunion. Mr. Simpson said:

"I glory in the spunk of Aguinaldo's men. They are simply fighting to regain the land the Catholics took from them. A local paper has asked: 'Who is John Brown's soul marching with-Otis or Aguinaldo?' I believe John Brown's soul is marching with Aguinaldo."

Mr. Sipmson said in substance that he would rather be with Aguinaldo than with General Otis. An old soldier in the audience rose and said that the speech was drifting too much into politics. This was applauded and greeted with cries of "Throw him out!" and "Kick Simpson off the platform!" Men and women arose and hissed, and the men kept crying, "Put him out!" Simpson appealed to the crowd to sit lown. "I am coming to my peroration," he said, although he had been speaking only 15 minutes. Cries came,

'Take your peroration to Aguinaldo." Simpson attempted to go on, but no one could hear him 10 feet away. The band struck up "The Star Spangled Banner," and Mr. Simpson left the platform. His retirement was greeted with prolonged cheers.
