Dale Holcomb, 97, died on February 25, 2015 at his home in New Bridge, Oregon - A viewing will be held on Sunday, March 8, from 2 to 5 p.m. at Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home 125 N Main Street in Halfway. A Traditional Funeral Service will be held on Monday, March 9, 2015 ~

Dale Davis Holcomb was the 1st Liberty Bond baby born during WWI on May 10, 1917 in Richland, Oregon. He went to school in Richland and graduated from Eagle Valley High School in 1935. Dale went on to college and majored in aeronautical engineering. The Curtis Wright Company paid Dale's tuition to college and he in turn taught pilots as well as applied his aeronautical engineering to the airplane designs.

After his first year attending college at Eastern, he came home on spring break. He met and later married Esther Hensley. They made their home in Richland, Oregon and it was there, that son Gary was born. Dale and Esther later had two more children, daughters Linda and Holly. All three children are eight years apart.

During Dale's life he worked as a flight engineer, second in command on airplanes. He was with the 29th bomb group in Pratt, Kansas during World War II and sent to the Northern Mariana Islands in the Pacific as an engineer. After the war, if you had an airplane, you were an airline. Dale worked for many including Trans World Airlines, Eastern and Pan Am.

Dale Holcomb

With Dale's career in the airlines, he traveled extensively at home and abroad, and the family settled in New York. Dale eventually retired from Eastern/Pan American Airlines. Esther died of breast cancer in 1981.

Years later while at a dance class, Dale met Barbara. Dale said Barbara was the "only thing he ever hunted." They had two weddings. The first was Dale's choice; in the judge's office. The second a Lutheran Service with friends and family in October of 2003 in New York; followed by a huge celebration. Not long after, in 2004, Dale put everything up for sale in New York and they moved to New Bridge, Oregon where they remodeled a home that he and his mother had purchased in 1950. That home was built in the 1800s.

Dale was preceded in death by his father Linn Holcomb and his mother Crystal Holcomb Woods and first wife Esther.
