Bobby K. Lockwood

Baker City, 1933-2015
Bobby K. Lockwood, 82, of Baker City, OR died February 26th, 2015 peacefully at his home. He is survived by his sister, Judy Lockwood LaBlue, of Walker, CA, his brother Larry Lockwood, of Yucaipa, CA, a daughter, Patricia Eudell Butler, wife Patty Sue Lockwood, of Springtown, TX and many other close family and friends.

Bob was born in Corona, California in 1933, he left his parents Dillard and Dora Lockwood and siblings, at an early age to strike out on his own. He served in the Army during the Korean war as a Pole-lineman, where he received the Korean Service Medal, United Nations Service Medal and the National Defense Service Medal. After coming back home, he became a truck driver, hauling freight for over 60 years.

In 2013, the US Senate dedicated the year 2012-2013 as the "Year of the Korean War Veteran". Bob was given an award of recognition in honor of this, from the US Senate, presented in Baker City, Oregon by Senator Ron Wyden, for his service.

Bob was very close with his grandson, Leonard Gazley, particularly in the last few years. Leonard provided Bob with care, making sure he made it to appointments, and that he had things he needed, but he also provided Bob with a friendship. Every day that he could be, Bob was at the door for coffee, and they would often go for drives in the countryside to look for animals or just to enjoy the scenery. He was always up for anything, if Leonard was going to be a part of it.

Leonard's brother Bobby (Bob's namesake) will assist in spreading Bob's ashes.

Bob requested no services be held. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations to the Disabled American Veteran's through Gray's West & Co. Pioneer Chapel, 1500 Dewey Ave., Baker City, OR 97814.

Norman DuBosch

Baker City, 1932-2015
Norm DuBosch, 82, of Baker City died on Monday, February 23, 2015 with his family at his side at St. Alphonsus Hospital in Baker City.

A Celebration of Norm's Life & Potluck was held on Saturday, February 28, 2015 at 4:00 p.m. at the VFW Hall Post #3048 - 2005 Valley Avenue in Baker City.

Norman George DuBosch, son of Mary and Victor DuBosch, was born February 29, 1932 in Milford, Connecticut. The family moved to California when Norm was 6 years old. Norm was raised in Bellflower California. He loved the ocean and learned to deep sea dive when he was very young. Upon graduating in 1949 from Excelsior High School, Norm and his mother traveled to Monument, Oregon to join Victor on the family ranch.

Norm enlisted in the Army in 1951 and was deployed to Korea to fight in the war as an amphibious tank driver. Norm was honorably discharged after serving 3 years in the Army in February of 1954. Norm received the Korean Service medal, the National Defense Service medal and the United Nations Service medal. Upon finishing his service he returned home to be with his parents in Monument, Oregon.

Norm met Joan Roach in Monument, Oregon and they married in the 1950s. Norm and Joan had a daughter Carol DuBosch in 1960. During this period Norm lived in La Grande and Pendleton, Oregon where he attended Eastern Oregon State College. Norm loved fast cars, he raced and followed the racing circuit in Oregon and Washington. Joan and Norm divorced in the mid 1960s.

Norm married Beverly Masterson and her two children in 1982 (Jeanette and Joe Etchamendy) whom he raised and loved as his own. Additionally, in 1988 Norm and Bev adopted Kestin Masterson who became part of the family. His granddaughter, Keegan Masterson was the apple of his eye. He was also a surrogate father and grandfather to many. Norm accepted people into his life without passing judgment and loved them unconditionally. He was a babysitter, a chauffeur, a cooking instructor, an amazing host and has taken on a parental and grandparent role numerous times throughout his life. Norm calculated at one time that he had attended 43 grade school Christmas programs. What a Saint!! Norm was a tremendous care giver with a big heart. He cared for his mother Mary, mother-in-law Velma Masterson and good friend Elaine during their final years.

Norm was an outdoor enthusiast who loved to hunt and fish while enjoying the scenery of Eastern Oregon and the coast. Some of his favorite memories were made on the Snake River listening to ABBA, camping, teaching his kids and others how to handle a boat and water ski. Additionally, he and his wife Beverly would go for long drives on the weekends, sometimes passing landmarks more than one time in a single drive. In other words, they spent a lot of their time lost! Norm also had a tremendous heart when it came to pets.

He was preceded in death by his parents, in-laws Clyde & Velma Masterson; brother in law and sister in law Robert and Kris Masterson.

Norm is survived by his wife Beverly DuBosch, daughter Carol Warren, daughter and son-in-law Jeannette and Kevin Burgess, son and daughter-in-law Joseph and Jennifer Etchamendy, son and daughter-in-law Kestin and Nichole Masterson, grandsons Christopher Warren, Michael Warren, Ryan Warren, Mason Masterson and granddaughters Keegan Masterson, Maci Masterson, and Rylee Etchamendy.

Those who would like to make a memorial donation in memory of Norm, may do so to defray funeral expenses through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home & Cremation Services PO Box 543 Halfway, Oregon 97834. On line condolences may be shared at www.tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com.

Edmond Loyd Koons

Baker City, 1933-2015
Edmond Loyd Koons, 81

died on February 18, 2015 at his residence in Baker City, Oregon. Interment took place Friday, February 27, 2015 at Mt. Hope Cemetery in Baker City, Oregon.

Edmond was born December 15, 1933 in Colorado Springs, Colorado to Paul and Irene (White) Koons. After graduating from Hamilton High in Los Angeles, California he entered the Navy and served honorably as a Navy photographer and cameraman from October 28, 1952 through October 26, 1956. Upon discharge from the Navy Edmond continued to work as a cameraman. His career as a Cinematographer included Hollywood motion pictures and other cinema projects until his retirement.

Edmond moved from Los Angeles to Baker City, Oregon to enjoy the outdoors and the seclusion of country living. His hobbies included canning, fishing and participating in activities as an Elks member.

Survivors include his sister Pauline Rich of Burbank, California; daughters, Karen Koons of Culver City, California and Peggy Moreno of Playa Vista, California; son Kenny Koons of Oroville, California; and one grandchild.
