— OBITUARIES —

Arleen Goodson

Cove, 1918-2015

Arleen Goodson, 96 years old, of Cove died on June 1st, 2015 at Meadowbrook in Baker City.

Arleen Goodson

A service to honor her life was Friday June 5th, at 10:00 a.m. at Loveland Funeral Chapel.

Arleen was born in Roswell, Idaho on August 5th, 1918 to Walter and Leonora Obendorf. After high school, Arleen graduated from Lewis and Clark College with a Lifetime Teaching Certificate.

She began her teaching career at Ten Davis School near Parma.

In 1942, she married Leonard Goodson and two years later their daughter Jacki was born. In 1946 Arleen and Leonard purchased a farm north of Cove. In addition to the everyday tasks of a farm wife and mother, Arleen quickly dedicated herself to her new community.

Arleen was a substitute teacher, taught Sunday school, and enjoyed teaching piano lessons. She volunteered countless hours at the library, the school, Cove Methodist Church, the Cove Improvement Club, and the Cherry Art Festival.

She was honored as the grand marshal of the Cherry Festival in 2003. Arleen was an active member of Mt. Fanny Grange Hall, Cherry Chapter of Eastern Star, Daughters of the Nile, and Cove Sportsman's Club. Arleen and Leonard were founding members of the Cove Booster Club. Arleen's heart always belonged to the kids of Cove.

For years, Arleen's smiling face was at every home sporting or school event; taking tickets, selling T-shirts or just being the Leopard's #1 fan.

In 1982 the Goodsons were selected for the Cove's First Booster of the Year award. In a special ceremony in 1991, the sports field was officially named "Goodson Field" in honor of the many contributions that Arleen and Leonard had made over the years to the athletic program.

The plaque reads, "Goodson Field will forever be named in your honor. Your loyal support in good times and bad are an inspiration to us all."

Arleen will always be remembered for her infectious smile, her compassion, and her sweet disposition. She was full of grace, love, and joy. God was the center of her life.

She was a true example of a Christian woman who exemplified God's love by the way she touched people with her selfless giving.

Those privileged to have known Arleen are better because of her. Arleen is survived by her daughter, Jacki and husband Jack Turner of Baker City, granddaughters Lynne McKittrick of Portland, Heather Krueger (Jerry) of Covington Washington, and Chandra Bingaman (Greg) of Imbler; sister-in-law, Verna Obendorf; seven great grand-children; brother Arthur and his wife Lela Obendorf; four nephews, one niece and numerous great nieces, nephews, and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Leonard Goodson, and her brother Walter Obendorf. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to Cove Booster Club in care of Loveland Funeral Chapel, 1508 Fourth St., La Grande 97850.

Panfish Tournament still popular

• PROCEEDS DONATED TO DISABLED CHILDREN

BY CARMELITA HOLLAND
News@TheBakerCountyPress.com

The Annual Panfish Tournament, under the banner, Creating Memories, washeld June sixth at the Hewitt Holcomb County Park, on the Brownlee Reservoir at Richland.

The event lived up to expectations by drawing a number of families with small children winning many prizes in a drawing, and winning cash prizes catching perch and other species from the shore around the dock.

Proceeds were donated to Creating Memories, a program organized by Ken Coreson, of Enterprise, to benefit disabled children.

Free hot dogs in buns were served to everyone, courtesy of Theron and Dorothy Hampton of The Hitching Post, and free sodas were provided by the Pepsi District of La Grande.

Board member-volunteers receiving caps were Steven Sharp, R.E. and Betty Sharp, Barbara Stacey, Patsy and Dan Michell, Patty and Ken Coreson.

Some of the prize/winner information was unavailable in time for print:

Kids Shoreline First Prize Hearne, 10 inch Perch.

Second Prize: Cutter Huff 9 3/4 inch, perch, prize, $40.

Third Prize: Emma F. 9 1/2 inch.

Adult Shoreline: First: 9 3/4 inch n/a perch.

Second: Kandice Holland 9 1/2 inch perch, prize $67.50

Third: Stephanie Brown 9 1/2 inch perch prize $67.50

Boating Adult: First: Maurene 14 1/2 crappie.

Second: Mike McNeil 14 1/2 inch crappie.

Third: Jim Massey

Dan Mitchell, announcer of prizes and auctioneer, recorded entries and collected fees, while at right Steven Sharp, director of the Panfish Tournament, measured catches and recorded fish.

10 inch award donated back to cause.

One kid boater, Alena Hill, won first prize with a ten inch crappie.

Cash donors were Eagle Telephone, Black Distributors, Wild Bill's, Veterans of Foreign Wars and Pine Telephone and Idaho Power Company.

Laurence Brown contributed three custom crafted fishing poles valued at $250 to $500.

Dan Mitchell, (auctioneer) sold off auction contributions from: Sycamore Tree, Baker City; Richland Shorthorn, Eagle Valley RV; Annies Cafe, Richland. There were 62 participants in the drawing.

The event began at 6 a.m. and measuring was ended at 5 p.m. Awarding prizes ended by 6 p.m.

— RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS —

Each week The Baker County Press will include a list—all anonymous, of course—of the good deeds and random acts of kindness people from around the area have witnessed. To include something you've seen or experienced, email News@

TheBakerCountyPress.com with "Random Acts of Kindness" in the subject line. We'll be sure to include your story.

I so appreciated the "We Love Baker City" group who held the unexpected FREE car wash on Thursday. They were so efficient, well organized and did it all with smiles and enthusiasm. Even the adults working with the teens displayed endless energy and excitement to be giving back to the community. Many Thanks for a great clean car.
