Mike Follin's frontier medicine show is coming to Baker City at the Oregon Trail Interpretive Center.

BAKER CITY, Ore. — Living history interpreter Mike Follin brings a re-created traveling frontier medicine show to the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center August 14-17. Presentations of "Dr. Balthasar" are scheduled daily at 10:30 a.m., noon and 2 p.m. in the Leo Adler Theater located inside the Center. Follin is with the Ohio Historical Society in Cincinnati, and created the character of a 19th century frontier patent medicine salesman to help modern Americans understand frontier history and early day health care. The Dr. Balthasar character uses the rapid fire patter and entertaining techniques that attracted early American country folk to attend a sales talk and purchase mostly useless tonics. Follin opens and closes his forty minute programs with modern viewpoints and facts about this early industry and frontier life, but when he assumes his character, audiences find themselves transported back in time, and often become part of the good doctor's sales spiel. The Trail Center is located five miles east of Baker City, Oregon on Highway 86. Take Exit 302 from I-84. The Center is currently open 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily. Admission for adults is $8.00; for seniors it's $4.50; children 15 and under are admitted for free. Federal passes are accepted. Call (541) 523-1843 for updates on programs and events. For more information about the Trail Center visit www.oregontrail.blm.gov.

— RANDOM ACTS OF KINDNESS —

Each week The Baker County Press will include a list—all anonymous, of course—of the good deeds and random acts of kindness people from around the area have witnessed. To include something you've seen or experienced, email News@TheBakerCountyPress.com with "Random Acts of Kindness" in the subject line. We'll be sure to include your story.

- I watched my neighbors' kid head out every evening and water the neighbors' pets and plants—at least the ones outside—after he was taken to the hospital. I know for a fact that nobody asked this kid to do it. He just noticed what was going on and helped.
- Our teenage daughter picked up and organized all the clothes she'd outgrown, and then had her friends all do the same. Then she collected all the clothes into bags and donated them. We live in Union County and hope it's ok to submit this! As parents, we're impressed every day with her kindness.

- This one guy paid for this other guy's latte or whatever at the airport the other day. The guy with the coffee was obviously military. Support!
