Marcella Taylor

Halfway, 1914-2015

Marcella Taylor, 101 years old, a lifelong Halfway resident, peacefully died early morning Thursday, October 22, 2015. A viewing will be held on Friday, October 30, from 4 to 7 p.m. at Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home 125 N Main Street Halfway, Oregon.

A Celebration of Marcella's Life Service will be held on Saturday, October 31, 2015 ~ 11:00 a.m. at the Presbyterian Church in Halfway, Rev Bill Shields presiding. Interment will follow the service at Pine Haven Cemetery. Friends are invited to join the family for a potluck reception to be held following the interment at the Lions Hall in Halfway.

Marcella was born in Halfway October 16, 1914 to Willis and Jessie Updike Mitchell. She married Floyd Taylor in September 20, 1933 in Halfway, Oregon. She lived her entire life in Pine Valley except for two short times in Baker, OR in the early 1940s. Marcella and Floyd had four sons.

In 101 years, Marcella had many life experiences that many would not understand, having not lived in this early era. As a girl she remembers Indians coming by their farmhouse looking in and sometimes standing outside the gate waiting for food. She enjoyed riding her horse to Halfway High School. During the winter she told of many times that Jim Alexander, the custodian, let the girls into the furnace room to warm themselves. Vernon Thomas, a great friend, enjoyed saddling her horse, getting it ready to go take Marcella home, however her saddle would be cinched on her horse backwards! During her life, the world changed from Model T Fords to space travel, from "party lines" to cell phones, from outhouses to indoor plumbing, and from pencil and paper to computers and internet, from reading books to watching TV. The memories shared of Marcella's life will live on for generations to come.

Marcella was the last remaining Charter Member of Pine Valley Grange #815 and longtime member of Eastern Star. She cared deeply about Pine Valley and the people who lived there.

She was preceded in death by her husband Floyd on October 21, 2001.

Marcella is survived by her sons William Floyd "Bill" Taylor and companion Jan Stewart of Pendleton, Oregon; Elton Dale and his wife Judy Taylor of Halfway, Oregon; Keith Marvin Taylor of Long Creek, Oregon and Michael Blair and wife Shirley Taylor of John Day; 13 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren and many great-great-grandchildren.

For those who would like to make a Memorial donation in memory of Marcella the family suggests The Hilary Bonn Benevolent Fund, Oregon Lions Sight and Hearing Foundation or the charity of your choice through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home PO Box 543 Halfway, Oregon 97834.

Online condolences may be shared at www.tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com.

Alan Fine

Richland and Baker City, 1948-2015

Alan Fine, 67, of Richland and Baker City, died on October 19, 2015 in Richland, Oregon.

A Catholic Mass will be held on Thursday, October 29, 2015 ~2:00 p.m. at St. Frances de Sales Cathedral in Baker City, Oregon. Friends are invited to join the family for a potluck reception to be held immediately following the Mass at the Veterans Memorial Club in Baker City.

Allan William was born February 27, 1948 to Herald and Ruth Fine of North Brunswick, New Jersey. He attended Catholic Schools. When he was a teenager, he had many stories about how much fun he had skydiving.

Allan moved out west to be with his father on the reservation where they were members of the Colville Indian Tribe of Washington. He later moved to Klamath Falls, Oregon where he met his beautiful wife Virginia. They were married June of 1981. Shortly after being married they were blessed with their son Allan Ovey Fine. They moved to Bend, Oregon where Allan managed Jakes Truck Stop. In September of 1985 they were blessed with their daughter Dawn Marie Fine.

Allan decided to start his own contracting business in 1991 while in Bend, later he moved his family to Baker City and continued his contracting business for a more few years.

In 1995 he started working as a Store Manager at Cenex gas station and worked there until his retirement in 2000.

Allan loved sports and enjoyed coaching his sons basketball team during his junior high school years. Allan enjoyed hunting fishing wood working watching football and as he would say he loved "drinkin my beer" and spending time with all his friends and family. He loved to make people laugh at all his silly jokes. Allan made friends everywhere he went and will be missed by so many.

He was preceded in death by his mother Ruth McNally, father Herald Fine and brother Herald Fine Jr.

Allan is survived by his wife Virginia of Baker City, Oregon; son Allan Fine of Baker city, daughter Dawn and her husband Kyle Knapp of Baker City, Granddaughters Celeena, Jordynn, Briannah, and Katrienna Fine, Emma, Eunie and Molly Knapp all of Baker City, Oregon; uncle Thomas McNally and wife Pat of New Jersey; special friends Jim Noland and his wife Debbie of Prineville Oregon; Allen and Tana Morris of Richland Oregon and many friends and loved ones.

Those who would like to make a donation in memory of Al, may do so to defray his service expenses through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home & Cremation Services PO Box 543 Halfway, Oregon 97834. Online condolences may be shared at tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com.

Soroptimists hold 'Live your Dream' art contest

Soroptimist International of Baker County, part of a global volunteer organization that works to improve the lives of women and girls through programs leading to social and economic empowerment, invites students, ages 4-18, to participate in its annual Live Your Dream art contest.

This year, the contest pays tribute to the launch of Soroptimist's new global program—Dream It, Be It: Career Support for Girls, which aims to help girls to reach their full potential and live their dreams, by providing them with access to professional role models, education and other resources they need to achieve their career goals. Students are asked to draw or paint a picture of a woman mentor or role model in their lives and share how this woman inspires or motivates them.

If chosen as a finalist, students' artwork will be displayed on the Soroptimist Facebook page throughout the month of February, where people can vote on the winners by "liking" their favorite artwork in each age category (Category 1: ages 4-7; Category 2: ages 8-11; Category 3: ages 12-15; and Category 4: ages 16-18). The artwork with the most "likes" in each category will signify the winner. Winners will be announced on the Soroptimist Facebook page on March 8, International Women's Day. Winners will also receive prizes featuring their artwork.

"Around the globe, women serve as role models and mentors to a younger generation," said Soroptimist President Sam Buchenau. "This year's Live Your Dream art contest provides a creative way for both boys and girls to honor these women, and share the positive influences they've had on their lives."

Schools must collect all work from their students and send in one package to Soroptimist, 1709 Spruce Street, Philadelphia, PA 19103, Attn: LYD Art Contest. The deadline is December 31. Contest rules and instructions are available at Soroptimist.org/artcontest.html. The local contact is Joan Macy at jmacy@otccc.com.
