WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS

Charlton S. (Charlie) Tobler (son of Jeff & Karen Tobler of St. Clair, MO) and Marta K. Andersen (daughter of Arvid & Mary Andersen, and granddaughter of Barbara Prowell, all of Baker City, OR) were married on March 26, 2016 at the Calvary Baptist Church in Baker City. The 6 bridesmaids wore 6 different colored jeweled dresses with the 6 groomsmen wearing matching ties; and the bride wore white to symbolize the commitment she and the bridegroom had made to remain sexually pure until their wedding day in honor and obedience to their Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

The 4 siblings of the couple (Erik, Lydia, and Annika Andersen; Christian Tobler) as well as friends served as attendants. The best man was Charlie's grandfather, Bob Tobler, and the maid of honor was Marta's long-time friend Tagg Wood. The other attendants were Greg Darby, Dan Jaeger, Zachary Halbert, Bri Jaeger (who introduced the bride to the groom), Morgan Anderson, and Lynn Flucke (all from MO). The candlelighters were Wesley Halbert (MO) and Sam Preuit (Baker). The flower-girls were Melody Halbert (MO) and Emma Preuit (Baker). Pastor Jeff Tobler, father of the bridegroom, officiated. An audio of the wedding ceremony is available on Pastor Tobler's radio ministry, <http://eternalpromises.org/radio>.

Submitted Photo.

Marta Anderson and Charlton Tobler, newlyweds.

The newlyweds were driven by Ron Colton in his carriage from the church to their reception at the Baker Co. Event Center, where they shared food, fellowship, a slide-show, music (guitar and singing by Charlie), and dancing with their guests. The 5-layer wedding cake, complete with decorative fondant and flowers, had been hand-crafted by the bride (and her helpers) in 3 phases. Before the couple departed, they had special photos taken by the photographer Joyclynn Potter on Mike & Sandy Moore's white horse Casper.

After honeymooning in Florida, they will make their home in MO – where they met, and where Charlie went to farrier school and Marta graduated from college in December 2015 with a degree in Equine Science and Administration. Along with both working in the horse industry, they also have a computer website design business, OmniCreative.com.

Michael Linscott

Baker City, 1987-2016

Michael Linscott, 28, passed away April 18, 2016 at his home with family.

Michael Linscott

A Celebration of his life was held Saturday, April 23rd at the Harvest Church of Baker City, Oregon at 11am, Luncheon to follow. Pastor Brad Phillips will officiate. Cremation rites were conducted at Gray's West & Company Pioneer Chapel.

Michael was born on September 6, 1987 at St. Elizabeth Hospital, Baker City Oregon to Delbert and Carol Linscott. He grew up going to the Assembly of God Church with his family.

Michael lived most of his life in Baker City; he attended the Baker City Christian School along with his siblings, cousins, and many friends. The family moved to Idaho for a while, then coming back to Baker City, where he enjoyed fishing with his brothers and family camping trips.

Michael enjoyed Sunday afternoon family days when the family would all load up after church with friends and head to the A&W for lunch, root beer floats and lots of laughter, returning home to watch movies or playing games, while dad would fall asleep in the chair and mom watching the kids play.

Michael was very talented at making techno music on his dj system on his computer and spent hours making it sound just right. He was hoping to make his music for some new video games. His greatest love was his family and friends. His nieces and nephews were one of his biggest joys!

Through his struggles, he clung to the love and saving grace of Jesus Christ. Romans 3:23-24 For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God, and are justified freely by his grace through the redemption that came by Christ Jesus.

Survivors include his father Delbert Linscott, mother Carol Linscott, Siblings Laura Brooke and Kevin Bottger and family of Baker City, Oregon; Jarrod Linscott and family of Baker City, Oregon; Sara and James Johnson and family of Baker City, Oregon; Audra and Leo Arenas and family of Enterprise, Oregon Aaron and Julie Linscott and family of Billings Montana; Jesse and Joni Linscott and family of Baker City, Oregon; Daniel Linscott of Baker City, Oregon; a grandmother Helen Cox of Canby, Oregon and several family and friends who will truly miss his warm smile.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Harvest Church through Gray's West & Company Pioneer Chapel, 1500 Dewey Ave. Baker City, OR. 97814. To light a candle in memory of Michael, please visit: www.grayswestco.com.

Lutz Juergen Kethler

Baker City, 1936-2016

Lutz Juergen Kethler was born and raised in the town of Braunlage - which lies within the Harz mountain range in Lower Saxony, Germany. During this period of his life, Lutz honed his athletic ability and competitive personality to become a champion ski jumper and tennis player.

In 1955 Lutz made the journey to Ellis Island to pursue his life-long dream of becoming a U.S. Citizen. During his lifetime, he served in both the U.S. Air Force as well as Army National Guard.

In 1962 he was accepted to UC Davis, where he played tennis and in 1966 earned his Bachelors of Science degree – Majoring in Biology. After teaching high school science for nearly a decade, he changed careers and in 1977 earned his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree from WSU College of Veterinary Medicine. Always up for an adventure, Lutz's enthusiasm for volunteering, exotic animals, veterinary medicine and travel took him to multiple continents for various wildlife research projects.

Lutz's passions included: his trees, watching movies, the opera, pastries and always being on-the-go. The happiest times were when he was with his daughters and many friends he made throughout his very full life. DaDa, your love will be in our hearts & minds forever.

He had a heart of gold and will live on through all that knew him. Those who would like to send condolences, please feel free to contact Paula at phoyt@mettel.net or 415-342-8460.

Friends and family are invited to join a 'Celebration of Lutz's Life' ceremony to be held at the Crossroads Carnegie Art Center 2020 Auburn Ave, Baker City, OR 97814 at 3:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 14th.

FBLA

The Baker High School's Future Business Leaders of America is in need of donations to help send this year's best and brightest to Nationals in Atlanta! These students competed at Regionals and State, placed, and now need to raise over $1,800 each to attend the conference and continue competing. Donations to BHS-FBLA can be dropped off at the high school and would be sincerely appreciated.
