Memorial Day

He continued, “Please do not let this day pass without telling our children and our grandchildren what it means to us, and how important it is for them to remember. Let us always as a nation, and as a free people, be grateful, for the sacrifice that was made. May God bless our nation, and our men and women, and keep them safe, until they bring them home again to us. Amen.”

Henshaw thanked Harvey, and the Dedication of Flags ceremony commenced, with Henshaw reading names of those honored, followed by the raising of a flag for each one individually, including: James Lee (Jim) York; Charles Palmer McKim, M.D.; and Duane Buckmaster. Taps was played following the raising of the last flag, by two trumpeters.

Coates delivered the closing prayer, and Avenue of Flags Chairman Doug Riggs spoke to the crowd next, thanking the various volunteers who helped place the flags last Saturday morning, including two Scout troops, and a Cub Scout troop. He introduced American Legion Auxiliary Unit #41 President Dani Huck, who was present, and he said she spent two years compiling information for a book titled The Avenue of Flags, which includes history, and all of the names on the flags flown that day, plus a few that weren’t flown (the only time she could get the names off the flags is when they’re flying, he said). He thanked her for her effort, he invited everyone to a VFW Post #3048-hosted spaghetti dinner at 4 p.m. that day, and he said that volunteers were needed to remove the flags, at 5 p.m. Henshaw thanked the crowd, and also invited everyone to attend the spaghetti dinner.

Run to the Ruts is June 4

The National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center in Baker City will again be hosting runners and walkers in the sixth annual “Run to the Ruts” 5K and 10K Fun Run/Walk to celebrate National Trails Day on June 4.

The race is hosted by the Trail Tenders volunteer association, and this year has over 18 local and regional sponsors. In past years, the race had the full range from experienced distance runners to families with infants in backpacks. All ages and fitness levels are welcome and encouraged to attend. There is a $15 entrance fee and all proceeds will benefit Trail Tenders, Inc., a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting the programs of the Interpretive Center. Water and snacks are provided. Start time for the 10K is 8:30 a.m. and for the 5K is 9 a.m. The Center will be open at 7:45 a.m. for same-day registration.

The race course is challenging, with a 340 foot elevation change. It takes runners over both paved and unpaved trails through sagebrush and rangeland. The course takes runners through views of the Elkhorn and Wallowa Mountain ranges, as well as the Oregon Trail ruts.

“It’s a fun time,” says Trail Tender President Kevin Bell, “seeing so many people from the community and families out enjoying our beautiful trail system.”

This is a sanctioned Fun Run, and all participants receive an award upon finishing the course. More details, including course records, can be found at trailtenders.org. For more information on registration and fees, call Trail Tenders at 541-523-1852 or send an email to oregontrailtenders@gmail.com.

National Trails Day celebrates America’s 200,000 miles of trails. Trails give us a means to support good physical and mental health; they provide us with a chance to breathe fresh air, get our hearts pumping, and escape from our stresses. Events are held in communities nationwide, and listed on the American Hiking Society website. What better way to celebrate the trails than to get out and run or walk at the National Historic Oregon Trail Interpretive Center. The Center has a 4.5 mile trail system. National Trails Day® on June 4, 2016 is also a Free Fee Day, so bring your full cheering squad and enjoy the Center after the race.
