Cyril Albert Stevens

Baker City, 1954-2016
Rev. Cyril Albert Stevens was born October 18, 1931 to Albert James and Dorothy Maude (Fitzgerald) Stevens in Balham (London), England. He died at his home in Christmas Valley, OR, May 27, 2016.

He attended schools in London during WWII, enduring the Blitz, and served in the British Army for two years. He attended art school in South Wales and studied the Bible with veteran ministers.

On October 30, 1954, he married Rene Cheer Roberts and they have three children; Sharon (Umpleby), Paul Stevens and Judith (Heckenberg). Cyril and Rene were full time pastor and wife of various churches, moving the family to the U.S. in 1969.

Pastor Stevens served several churches: Newtown Baptist Church in England; Lakewood Baptist Church, Tacoma, WA; First Baptist Church, La Grande, OR; First Baptist Church, Watsonville, CA; First Baptist, Molalla, OR and Christmas Valley Community Church in Christmas Valley, OR. He was a much sought after speaker for camps and special meetings. At La Grande, he encouraged the church to open Heidi Ho Christian Kindergarten which is still operating. He also enjoyed hunting for elk, climbing mountains, backpacking and riding horses.

Cyril's greatest passion was preaching and sharing the Gospel of Jesus with others and instructing them in Biblical principles for living. Spreading the Gospel took him to various mission fields such as Brazil, India and Latvia, Europe. He first became acquainted with Americans at the Air Force bases in Upper Heyford and Croughton in England, which led to the move to Tacoma. He had a great vision to have the Word of God proclaimed over the radio airs. While in Chesham, he would take the sermons in a large tape recorder that he would transport in the baby buggy and push it around town for the sick or shut-in
