Lance Simpson

Formerly of Halfway, 1970-2016

Lance James Simpson age 46 of Elkridge, Utah died on June 10, 2016 in a tragic accident. A Memorial Service ~ Celebration of Lance's Life will be held at the Halfway Lions Hall in Halfway Oregon on Saturday, June 25, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. A potluck reception will be held immediately following at the Halfway Lions Hall.

Lance was born in Spokane, Washington on February 25, 1970 to Delores Simpson. He lived in Spokane until the age of 10 when his mother moved Lance and his sisters to Las Vegas where he went to school. When Lance was 16 he moved to Halfway Oregon to live with his sister Meriann Digges and got his GED. Lance went to work at Wild Bills washing dishes for Veryl Waldron his aunt for a while and did odd and end jobs for people in Halfway.

When Lance became an adult he asked his Uncle Bill Waldron of Halfway Oregon to get him a job at the Toole Chemical Agent Disposal Facility Site. He worked various positions at that location for approximately nine years. He then transferred to Umatilla Chemical Agent Disposal Facility in Hermiston, Oregon, where he worked for one year. At that point he developed an interest in power generation leading him to work at the Hermiston Generating Station for the next 7 years. Continuing his interest in power generation he accepted a position with Puget Sound Energy in Goldendale, Washington where he worked for eight years. Most recently, for career advancement, Lance accepted a position with PacifiCorp at a power generating facility in Provo, Utah.

He married Debra Burg raff in 1990 in Halfway, Oregon and had two sons Shaine and Chase.

Lance remarried September 6, 2014 to the love of his life, Jade. Together they were very happy and whenever Lance wasn't working they were off doing new adventures together.

Lance Simpson

Lance was never as happy as he was with Jade. Lance loved life, his sons and his family. He was full of energy and loved to make people happy. He was always on the go traveling, and sight-seeing. There was always a new adventure. Every day was lived like there was no tomorrow.

Lance always came to Halfway, this is where he said home was and this is where he said he wanted to be laid to rest.

He was preceded in death by his wife Jade Simpson, Mother Delores Simpson, Grandparents, Alfred and Blanche Grandlund.

Lance is survived by his sons Shaine Simpson of Boardman, Oregon and Chase Simpson of Corvallis, Oregon; sisters, Colleen Spence, Diane Simpson, Valerie Simpson, and Meriann Digges; Aunts and Uncles Bill and Veryl Waldron, Joe and Nadine Good; nephews, Richard Spence, Zac Gonzales, Richard Gonzales, Alex Spence, Liam Spence, and Matt Spence; nieces, Michelle Noddings, Jessica Gonzales, Celisa Digges; step-nieces Sarah and Rachael Digges; several great nieces, nephews and cousins.

Those who would like to make a memorial donation in memory of Lance may do so to your charity of choice through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home & CS - PO Box 543 Halfway, Oregon 97834. Online condolences may be shared at www.tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com
