Sno cones prove popular

Also in the parade were Smokey Bear, the Huntington Fire Department, Vale District BLM, Sheriff's candidate John Hoopes, the Huntington Historical Society, kids on bikes and golf carts as well as horses.

This year's Grand Marshalls, Carmen and Wiley Harding, rode in a shiny white Hummer and the Lion's Club, VFW, State of Oregon and USA flags were carried proudly down the parade route by school students Tyalinn Harrison, Rose Harrison, Gordon Harrison and Aiden Hicks.

Immediately after the parade the kids enjoyed the water park area with slides, pool and sprinklers to cool them off after chasing down the candy thrown from the floats.

At 4 p.m. it was time for a good all-American hot dog dinner at the Cook Shack complete with popsicles for dessert.

Both events were sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce. The celebration was complete with a dazzling fireworks display at dusk at Farewell Bend State Park set off for a very appreciative crowd by the Lion's Club.
