Pauline Sheppard

Baker City, 1920-2016

Pauline Sheppard, 96, of Baker City, died on Saturday, July 9, 2016 at her home. A Graveside Service will be held on Saturday, June 16, 2016 ~ 10 a.m. at Mt. Hope Cemetery in Baker City.

Pauline Sheppard

Pauline Clipfell Sheppard started life in Hollywood, California on April 10, 1920. An accomplished musician, she played a mean marimba at the original Four Square Church in Los Angeles, and spent her childhood in the shadows of stars like Shirley Temple and Mickey Rooney. At age 13, on the heels of a gubernatorial election that went the wrong way according to her grandmother's political opinions, the family matriarch moved the extended family to Oregon. Pauline spent her teens and the Great Depression in Lyons, Oregon and after high school attended John Brown University in Arkansas. During her freshman year she instigated the great toilet paper rebellion and was encouraged to leave the university. The following year she enrolled at Linfield College where she met Don Sheppard, and burned a hole under the old oak tree on campus as they began a hot romance that lasted 63 years.

After they married in 1941, they moved to Huntington, Oregon where Pauline taught music and gave birth to their first of five daughters, Paula Sue. Don was drafted to serve in World War II and while he was in Europe, Pauline returned to Lyons to live with her family. She gave birth to daughter number two shortly after Don was drafted, and daughter number three nine months after he was home on leave. Daughters four and five were born after the war when the family had moved to Baker City. Pauline and her husband Don ran A-1 Realty in Baker City where she worked as a realtor, ran a real estate school, and was a licensed tax consultant. They were also instrumental in founding the Baker Heritage Museum. She was a person who loved her pets, ranging from a pig to dogs, a squirrel or two, to birds, and most recently to all the feral cats in her neighborhood that she had spayed and neutered, and named, and fed each day while insisting they were not her pets. Her faith was always core to her life and she spent many years as a church instrumentalist and attending weekly Bible study groups. Art and creativity were also fundamental to her being, and she has left her family a legacy of unique creations.

She was preceded in death by her parents, George and Edith Clipfell; her husband, Don Sheppard; sister, Elaine Hadley; and brother, Perry Clipfell; her daughters, Paula Sue Sheppard and Nelda Retherford; son-in-law, Ronald Johnson; and son-in-law, Bill McCauley.

Pauline is survived by her sister, Evelyn Knight; sister-in-law, Peggy Dick; daughters Mardell Sheppard McCauley; Shirleen Sheppard Dunn and son-in-law Bill Dunn; Donclia Sheppard Thornberg and son-in-law Nils Thornberg, and son-in-law, Vic Retherford. She is also survived by 12 grandkids, 22 great-grandkids, and 6 great-great-grandkids.

We will remember her for many things, but mostly we will remember her for (and be jealous of) how great her legs still looked at age 90.

For those who would like to make a memorial donation in memory of Pauline, the family suggests Best Friends (care of animals) through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home & Cremation Services PO Box 543 Halfway, Oregon 97834. On line condolences may be shared at www.tamispinevalleyfuneral-home.com.
