Theda Larayne Boyer

Baker City, 1923-2016
Theda Larayne Boyer, 93, a long time Baker City resident passed away on July 15, 2016 at Meadowbrook Place. A memorial service will be held at 2:00 PM on September 3, 2016 at Coles Tribute Center located at 1950 Place Street in Baker City, Oregon.

Theda Boyer

On January 15, 1923 Theda Larayne Rhea was welcomed into the world by her parents; Ralph Rhea Sr. and Stella (Keerins) Rhea. She was a descendant of an earlier homestead family, the Keerins, who built a home and began a long ranching business.

The Rhea family originally came to colonial America, settling in Tennessee. Family members included a prominent congressman. A county in Tennessee bears the family name (Rhea County).

Raised in Grant County, Theda spent much of her childhood at the family homestead at Izee. Theda attended and graduated high school in John Day, Oregon, and after high school she worked for D' Clarks for 28 years in Baker City. On April 20, 1941, Theda married Phillip J. Boyer in Vancouver, Washington who passed away in 2001. Phil and Theda managed and operated the John Day Airport for many years.

From a very young age Theda loved fashion and her friends and family fondly described her as a fashion icon; her fashion design and dress were impeccable. Theda loved to knit and she enjoyed making beautiful sweaters. She also loved to go shopping in Portland with her dear friend Arlo Lee while visiting her sister Rosemary. Later in life she had a fondness for visiting with her brother Ralph Rhea and going out on the town while she was there. Taking trips to Boise for lunch and shopping trips to the Coach store with her niece Peggy was also something she greatly enjoyed doing. Her friends and family were her lifeline to visiting and shopping adventures.

She was an avid golfer both in John Day and Baker City and she was also an avid bowler, bowling for Ellingson Lumber, Theda won many trophies for both bowling and golfing. The Episcopal Church in John Day, Eastern Star in John Day, Quail Ridge golf course in Baker City, and the Officers Wife Club in Montana were clubs and organizations she was proud to have been a member of and affiliated with.

Theda is survived by her niece Peggy Rhea-Case of La Grande, niece Margaret Rhea of Portland, nephew Kerry Rhea of Canyonville, nephew Daniel Rhea of Washington D.C., niece Julie Rhea of Portland, nephew Pat Rhea of Vancouver, nephew Greg Jeffries of Tualitan, and nephew Mark Jeffries of Vancouver.

She is preceded in death by her parents Ralph Sr. and Stella Rhea, her husband Phillip Boyer, her brother Bill C. Rhea, her sister Rosemary Jeffries, her brother Ralph Rhea Jr., and nephew Mike Jeffries.

Memorial contributions in honor of Theda may be made to the Oregon Humane Society through Coles Tribute center at 1950 Place St. Baker City,
