Group donates harness money

Submitted Photo.

Sergeant Chastain and Capa thank Ms. Stewart and New Hope for their generous donation.

Mr. Dick Haines and Ms. Judy Stewart, representing the New Hope for Eastern Oregon Animals, donated a check this summer in the amount of $100 to the City of Baker City Police Department's canine program for the purpose of replacing the old dog harnesses used by canine Turbo with new modern dog harnesses for canine Capa.

At times, harnesses in drug detection canine work are preferred over collars because they take pressure off the dog's neck, allow different points of contact to prevent pulling as pulling encourages the dog to be off balance, positions the dog more naturally at the handler's side, gives better influence and communication from the handler to the dog, and provides better comfort for the dog. Lastly, harnesses provide a means to readily identify the dog as a police canine to the general public.

Donations such as the one made by New Hope for Eastern Oregon Animals are necessary for the continued success of our canine program as the program is funded solely from donations such as those made by New Hope. Funds are used to maintain the canine's equipment and pay for medical and food costs associated with the canine.

This donation will be used to purchase one new modern dog harnesses for canine Capa.
