Sunday, September 4, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Oregon Trail Interpretive Center. Experience the food, music, stories, and activities of an Oregon Trail wagon train. The Labor Day Weekend activities start with music by folk singer Hank Cramer and Friends at the Trail Center's outdoor amphitheater Friday at 6:00 pm. Hosted by Trail Tenders, the cost is $5.00 at the gate. Cramer's program includes an assortment of folk and contemporary music about the west. Located outdoors in a circle of replica covered wagons, historical re-enactors cook meals over open fires, and offer samples of the types of food pioneers ate on the trail such as bison stew, bean and bacon, biscuits and cobbler. Dressed in clothing representative of the 1850s, and using tools and materials of the time, interpreters demonstrate a variety of trade skills, technology, and everyday activities used six or more generations back. Visiting interpreters include blacksmith Peter Clark, wheelwright Jack Colwell, and teamster Bullwhackin' Kass with her team of oxen. A mountain man will share stories and lore of the fur trade era while demonstrating flint knapping. Musical duo Carter Junction will perform frontier era folk music. On Saturday and Sunday the program "An Evening Chat" will be in the Leo Adler Theater at 2 p.m. The special exhibit "The Native Landscape" will be open in the Flagstaff Gallery.

Emma Louise Whitnah

Richland, 1941-2016

Emma Louise Whitnah, 75, former resident of La Grande, Ontario, and Richland, Oregon, passed away Friday August 19, 2016 in Highland, Utah. Funeral services were held Friday, August 26, 2016 at 11:00 a.m. in the LDS Chapel in Halfway, Oregon (46568 Cornucopia Hwy) preceded by a viewing from 10-10:45 a.m.. Interment will be in the Richland Cemetery in Richland, Oregon. A potluck luncheon will follow for family, friends, and neighbors at the New Bridge Grange beginning about 2:00 p.m.

Emma was born May 2, 1941 in Nampa, Idaho to Paul (Ben) Koch and Dorothy Coffey. She spent her first years in Nampa until her family moved to New Meadows, Idaho where they ran the service station in town.

Emma grew up spending lots of time outdoors on hunting and fishing trips with her dad. She was a champion skeet shooter, played honky-tonk piano with the local band beginning when she was 12, and often worked the service station alone when her parents were gone. Emma was a good student, and had dreamed of becoming the first woman forest ranger in Idaho. Shortly after graduating from high school in New Meadows, she married Calvin Hugh Whitnah on May 17, 1959.

Emma and Calvin raised three sons: Wes (Grace) of Aloha, Oregon; Michael (Anjee) of LaGrande, Oregon; and Don (Shelly) of Highland, Utah; and are grandparents of 12: Becky Boudrero (Jeff), Robbie (Tessa), Sean (Amanda), Bethany Johnson (Mark) and Bryan; Jarin, Jaina, Caedra, Alora, and Qwinah; Zachary and Eli; and are great grandparents of 3: Ryan and Dominic Boudrero, and Duke Whitnah; with more on the way.

Emma was known for her cooking and baking, and would decorate cakes for birthdays and special occasions long before it was popular. As her boys were finishing high school, Emma returned to school to become an x-ray technician. She worked in Portland, La Grande, and Ontario, traveling frequently across the country to learn new skills in x-ray and ultrasound.

Later in life she learned to play the fiddle and was a member of the Old Time Fiddlers' groups in Eastern Oregon/Idaho and in Utah. Several times a week she'd play her fiddle, accordion, and piano, especially for older groups who appreciated hearing the old country tunes they grew up with.

Arrangements are in the care of Coles Tribute Center at 1950 Place St. Baker City, Oregon 97814.

To light a candle in memory of Emma, please visit:

Dorothy Mae Ego

Troutdale, 1931-2016

Dorothy Mae Ego, 84, of Troutdale, Oregon passed away at her residence on August 19, 2016 under the care of hospice. A private interment will take place at the Pine Haven Cemetery in Halfway, Oregon.

On September 29, 1931, James (Paul) Masterson and Ennis (Watson) Masterson welcomed Dorothy into the world in Crowley, Colorado. Dorothy attended high school in Baker City at the Baker High School. She became a librarian and worked at the Baker High School as well as at Grant-Union High School in John Day for 32 years before she retired.

Dorothy married Eugene Franklin Ego in Boise, ID on August 29, 1952.

Reading and spending time with her beloved cat Nikko were some of the things Dorothy cherished.

She is preceded in death by her husband Eugene Franklin Ego and her daughter Erna Kay Williams.

Should friends and family desire, memorial contributions may be made to the Friends of the Library through Gray's West & Co., 1500 Dewey Ave. Baker City, OR 97814.

To light a candle, share a memory or leave a condolence for Dorothy, please visit: www.grayswestco.com.

Donald "DJ" James Hutton

Baker City, 1954-2016

Donald "DJ" James Hutton, 62, of Baker City, OR passed away on August 17, 2016 at his residence under the care of Heart 'n Home Hospice. Private family services will be held at a later date. Gray's West & Co. Pioneer Chapel is in charge of the arrangements.

On February 9, 1954, Donald James was welcomed into the world by John Hutton and Shirley Veronica (Riley) Hutton in Troy, New York. Donald attended high school in Simi Valley, California and graduated in 1972. After high school he attended Moorpark College in Moorpark, California until 1973.

He was married to Shelley Paige on November 19, 1983 and together they had three wonderful children. DJ was a devoted husband and father.

Donald worked as a heavy equipment operator for the City of Simi Valley in California and later for the City of Baker City in Oregon. He retired in December of 2010 after working for the City of Baker City for 33 years. Donald was highly respected by his co-workers and will be remembered as a very hard worker.
