Lorraine Lohner

Baker City, 1931-2016

Lorraine Swanson Lohner, 85, of Baker City died on September 8, 2016 at home with family by her side. There will be no services at this time.

Lorraine Lohner

Lorraine was born on September 7, 1931 to John and Viola Swanson on her family's dairy farm outside of Askov, MN. She graduated from Willow River H.S. in 1949 and State Teachers College in Saint Cloud in 1953.

Lorraine moved to Oregon to start her teaching career and married Fred Lohner in 1954. Lorraine taught in elementary schools for 35 fulfilling years, primarily in the Bend-LaPine and Pleasant Hill School Districts. She was fortunate to have had her future son-in-law and several grandchildren as students.

Lorraine is survived by her husband Fred, sisters Beatrice and Nancy of MN, and Arlene of Lebanon, OR; sons Jay and Wyn of Baker City and daughter Rene of LaPine; and their spouses Connie, Robin, and Stan; grandchildren Amanda, Dillon, Kyle, Jackie, Jacob, Zachary, and Lauren; great-grandchildren Lorelei, Lane, Leah, Caitlin, Kimber, Olin, Lyle, Austin, Rylee, Emerson, Raynes, Haven, Lola, Eva, and Clara.

Lorraine was preceded in death by her parents, her in-laws, and a brother.

Lorraine was a teacher of values and faith every day of her life. She was loved by all and will be missed by all.

Rose Anna Scott

Baker City, 1926-2016

Rose Anna Scott, 90, of Baker City died Friday, September 02, 2016 at her residence.

Rose Anna Scott

A visitation was held Wednesday, Sept. 7 at Gray's West & Co. Pioneer Chapel from 2:00 until 6:00 p.m.. Her funeral will take place at 3:00 PM on Thursday, Sept. 8 at the Baker City Christian Church with a reception following in the church fellowship hall. She will join her husband, James Scott, at the Willamette National Cemetery in Portland on the following Monday.

Roy Wymond Brasher and Adele Anna (Hopken) Brasher were delighted to welcome their daughter, Rose Anna Scott, into the world on February 9, 1926 in Sacramento, California. Rose attended high school at Oakland High and on May 19, 1945 she and James Rochford Scott joined their hands in marriage in San Jose, California. Together James and Rose had three wonderful boys; James, Robert, and Raymond.

Rose worked as a telephone operator during World War II and she also sold Avon. She was a devoted wife and mother, who loved and encouraged her children throughout their lives and to her loving family; this was her greatest and most appreciated accomplishment.

When Rose had spare time she loved to do crewel embroidery, crochet, work on crossword puzzles, play cards, and put together puzzles.

Rose leaves behind three beloved sons; James H. Scott of Baker City, Robert S. Scott of Baker City, and Raymond J. Scott of Baker City. She also leaves behind two grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Roy and Adele Brasher, and her husband, James Scott.

Should friends and family desire, memorial contributions may be made to a charity of choice or to the VFW Lodge in honor of Rose through Gray's West & Co. Pioneer Chapel at 1500 Dewey Ave., Baker City, OR 97814.

To light a candle, leave a condolence, or share a memory of Rose, please visit: www.grayswestco.com.
