Mary Elizabeth "Libby" Carnahan

Baker City, 1922-2016

Mary Elizabeth "Libby" Carnahan passed on to be with the Lord November 2, 2016. A memorial service was held at the Baker City Christian Church Monday, November 7, 2016.

Libby Carnahan

Libby was born April 15, 1922, in Alexandria, VA, to James Arthur Pilkerton and Mary Frances (Mollie Robey) Pilkerton. She was born an east-coast, city girl but came west to live out her life in Eastern Oregon to a farm in Eagle Valley and in Baker City. She was a hard-working, little lady with a sweet, gentle soul who taught little children in Sunday School and Vacation Bible School for years as a member of the Richland Christian Church and the Baker City Christian Church, a great cook who could drive tractor and change irrigation water, and later a cook at Richland Grade School and St. Elizabeth Hospital, and a motel laundress. She hosted a weekly, home, Bible fellowship for some 25 years and remained very active for her 94 years. She knitted many scarves for distribution to shelters, enjoyed crocheting and embroidery work, reading, crossword puzzles, huckleberry picking and making pies and jam, canning, and spending time with all the grand and great-grandchildren.

She attended schools in Alexandria but graduated late due to spending several months helping to care for her best friend who was dying of leukemia. After graduation the family moved to Washington, DC. She was employed by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company for four years, working in Alexandria and then transferring to Washington, DC. She met Carl Adrian Carnahan while he was stationed at Bainbridge, MD with the US Navy. She introduced Adrian's brother, Joe, to a co-worker and the four became a very close foursome. After Adrian and Joe were discharged from the Navy, the two gals travelled by train to Baker in February 1946 and a double wedding followed on March 5, 1946. Adrian and Libby were married 61 years before Adrian's death on April 26, 2007. They had celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary with a trip to Hawaii in 1996. Adrian and Libby lived and farmed in Eagle Valley while raising three children, Judy, Audri and Jim. In 1972 they moved to Baker City where Libby worked at the hospital and later at the Sunridge Inn.

In later years she enjoyed several trips to Hawaii and a very special trip to Virginia in 2014 with all three children.

She is survived by three children: Judith Arlene Meneghin of Beaverton, Audrian Elizabeth Alsmann of Tigard and James Clayton Carnahan (Brenda) of Baker City; 5 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren, a niece, nephews and cousins.

She was preceded in death by husband Carl Adrian Carnahan, her older sister Dorothy Simms and her husband Tom, her parents, son-in-law Gerry Alsmann, step-great-grandson Cole Frieden, a niece Donna Jane Carnahan and nephew Duane Carnahan.

The family would like to thank St. Alphonsus Medical Center for the professional, considerate, and gentle care during the last two weeks of her time on this earth. For those who would like to make a memorial donation in memory of Libby the family suggests Eagle Valley Ambulance or to The Bread of life food bank through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home and Cremation Services PO Box 543, Halfway Oregon 97834. Online condolences may be shared at www.tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com.
