Robert "Bob" Radle

Baker City, 1932-2016

Bob and Jeanette flew every chance they got. He was also a member of the Shasta Co. Flying Posse. He continued to fly into his early 80s.

This still wasn't enough so in 1998 with his son Steve, they sold their ranches and moved to the Keating Valley outside of Baker City, Oregon, this is where he fully realized his dream of being a full time rancher.

Bob accomplished many things in his life, he was a hard worker, extremely disciplined, dedicated to his family, one tuff cowboy and very proud of it. Anyone that ever met Bob was sure to have heard the story of the time he roped a coyote.

Bob is preceded in death by his sweet wife Jeanette (Morin) Radle and his parents Herbert Radle and Ardel (Sherrill) Radle.

He leaves behind his two sisters Betty (Radle) Thomas of Grass Valley, Ca. and Helen (Radle) Long also of Grass Valley, Ca., his daughters Debbie (Radle) Dye her husband Robert and Cindy (Radle) Royce her husband Brad all of McArthur, Ca., his son Steve Radle his wife Debbie. He is also survived by ten grandchildren; Heather (Dye) Barbee of Gardnerville, Nv., Jennifer (Dye) Pedersen of Chico, Ca., Laura Dye of McArthur, Ca., James Dye Gatesville, Tx., Christy Lee (Royce) Powell of Newberg, Or., Kimberly Anne Royce-Taylor of Reno, Nv., Abagale Radle-Simmons Naples Italy, Brandon Radle, Ashley Radle and Travis Radle all of Baker City, Or. Bob was a great grandfather to nine great grandchildren.

Bob inspired us all to be hard workers, honest, loyal and good to all animals. He was a cowboy, storyteller, father, grandfather and great grandfather. We will miss and forever remember Bob.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Wounded Warrior Project through Gray's West & Co. Pioneer Chapel by sending them to 1500 Dewey Ave., Baker City, OR 97814.
