The ladies of the Lone Pine Tree Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) mustered for another regular monthly meeting to discuss a variety of topics, in the northeastern Sunridge Room, of the Sunridge Inn Restaurant, at noon on Friday, March 10, 2017.

Chapter Regent Meschelle Cookson called the meeting to order, welcomed attendees, and introduced herself, which was followed by introductions from the rest of the present group. Cherlyne Allen led in recitation of the Pledge of Allegiance, as well as the American's Creed. Cookson explained Chapter Chaplain Wilma Johnson's absence, and the Invocation was provided by Chapter Vice Regent Roberta Morin.

Lillian Densley gave a very informative presentation regarding her Revolutionary ancestors, "The Saga of the Family of See," originally with the surname of Zeh (later changed to See), George and wife Margaret, with son, Frederick, who emigrated from Germany to the Mowhawk Valley, New York, in 1712, moved to Pennsylvania, and eventually settled in Hampshire County, West Virginia.

Concluding her detailed presentation about the See family's history and descendants, Densley said, "My Revolutionary ancestors—a straight line—are James Johnson, and Peter Shumaker." Along with applause, members of the group expressed praise for Densley's thorough presentation.

The group reviewed the minutes from the Friday, February 10, 2017 meeting, and they were approved, with a motion from Morin, and a second from Allen, and Treasurer Shirley Simmons provided a Treasurer's Report.

After explaining some details, she said the final Chapter balance was $4,146.81, and the report was approved, with a motion from Joan Smith, and a second from Morin. Invoices to submit for payment were also approved. Items for the Final Chapter Budget for 2017 were detailed, which included a variety of expenses, such as for events, for essay winners, and for the DAR window displays at the Enterprise, La Grande, and Baker City libraries.

Cookson said that the 126th Continental Congress national DAR meeting, at DAR Headquarters in Washington, D.C., is scheduled for June 28, through July 2, 2017. The annual national meeting is named after the original Continental Congress that governed the American Colonies, and attracts more than 3,500 members to D.C., each summer, according to information provided by DAR. Cookson also mentioned the online publication National Defender.

Chapter Registrar Lynne Zwanziger said that Chapter membership is up to 50 now. This includes a first for the Chapter—the induction of Portland-based Lois Steele via telephone, which was arranged by her daughter and new Chapter member Bonnie Rux, of Baker City. This was submitted by Chapter Historian/Public Relations Officer Dorothy Robertson, and included in the "Chapter Chatter" section of the Spring 2017 issue of the Oregon State Society Daughters of the American Revolution (OSSDAR) publication, Patriot Press. Also included in the issue was this, from American History Committee State Chair Eleanor Fuhrer, which Cookson read: "Oregon's winning essays are now with the NW Division chair for the next round of judging. Worth mentioning—one chapter reported receiving 73 entries this year (Allen said, during the meeting, there were 78 entries). Way-to-go LONE PINE TREE CHAPTER!" Chapter Programs Officer Carol Guthrie announced recipients of the Good Citizen awards, which includes Burnt River High School's Daniel Isenberger (Morin expressed delight upon hearing this), and Baker High School's Corrine Wilson. Morin mentioned that Isenberger is a member of the Burnt River Chapter of the Future Farmers of America (FFA), and that the Burnt River FFA banquet will be in Unity, on Wednesday, April 5.

Zwanziger spoke about the Chapter's window display, at the Baker County Library (directly to the left, upon entering the library, from the Resort Street double door entrance), and she passed around pictures of the effort and the display.

Cookson discussed the State Conference, in Wilsonville, May 18-22, 2017, and she asked for nominations for delegates to attend the event. Smith, Guthrie, and Cookson were nominated, with a motion from Morin, and a second from Allen.

As part of Chapter by-laws review of travel reimbursement and correction, it was discussed whether $150 per trip (which is in the by-laws) should remain the set amount, or possibly increased to $200. The amount of $150 was approved, with a motion from Morin, and a second from Smith.

Included in a discussion regarding future Chapter agenda items, Cookson mentioned the District Five Meeting, Saturday, July 29, 2017, at the Baker Elks Lodge No. 338, 1896 2nd Street, Baker City, which the Lone Pine Tree Chapter is hosting. She handed out copies of the registration form, and she said the cost of registration is $20.00, which includes lunch.
