Alexandra is pretty much alone in the world— except for her matchmaking boss and contrary friend, Mary. After a “Date with the Living Dead” & a brush with executive espionage, she’s focused on climbing the corporate ladder. Romance just isn’t worth the effort. Then enigmatic playboy Scott Falconer comes along in cowboy boots & a tuxedo to cut the rungs out from under her.

Lilly lives in the St. Jean—once in the center of New York’s 1920s jazz scene—where musician Brandon lived during the prohibition. Owner of a notorious speakeasy, he witnessed a crime spree fueled by liquor and passion. In the midst of it all, Brandon simply disappeared. Now Lilly is drawn into his mystery. In the glitter of Times Square, an epic love is about to unfold across the decades.

‘Western Shadows’ artist to appear at Crossroads

In May Crossroads welcomes Brian Sostrom of Carnation, Washington with an exhibition of acrylic paintings on Plexiglas titled “Western Shadows.”

The exhibition is on display Friday, May 5th through Saturday, May 27th, 2017 at Crossroads Carnegie Art Center-2020 Auburn Ave. in Baker City. The opening reception is Friday, May 5, 2017, 5:30-8:00 p.m.

Informal artist talk with Brian Sostrom begins at 5:30 p.m.

In the Student Gallery will be artwork of Baker Middle School students.

Live music will be by Russell Anderson on keyboard and Douglas Anderson on guitar.

Light refreshments will be provided. This exhibition is generously sponsored by Lew Bros. Les Schwab Tires.

Gallery hours are Monday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Nature and the beauty of emptiness have heavily inspired Brian Sostrom’s paintings.

The atmospheric images are not intended to communicate a story but rather create an intriguing visual poem.

His recent works are acrylic paint on Plexiglas.

The slick surface of the plastic sheeting makes an excellent surface for subtle brushwork and mark making.
