Alexandra is pretty much alone in the world— except for her matchmaking boss and contrary friend, Mary. After a “Date with the Living Dead” & a brush with executive espionage, she’s focused on climbing the corporate ladder. Romance just isn’t worth the effort. Then enigmatic playboy Scott Falconer comes along in cowboy boots & a tuxedo to cut the rungs out from under her.

Lilly lives in the St. Jean—once in the center of New York’s 1920s jazz scene—where musician Brandon lived during the prohibition. Owner of a notorious speakeasy, he witnessed a crime spree fueled by liquor and passion. In the midst of it all, Brandon simply disappeared. Now Lilly is drawn into his mystery. In the glitter of Times Square, an epic love is about to unfold across the decades.

 Christina Britton Conroy M.A., C.M.T., L.C.A.T.
 WITH ILLUSTRATIONS BY LARRY CONROY

Christina Britton Conroy, M.A., L.C.A.T., C.M.T. is the founder and Executive Director of Music Gives Life, bringing musical performing into the lives of senior citizens. Many of her elderly showstoppers, ages 60-101, never performed in public before joining Christina's program. NY1 - TV NEWS named them NYers of the Week. A former senior center director, nursing home music therapist, and primary caregiver for two elderly family members, Christina has unique insights into the joys and frustrations shared by geriatric patients and their caregivers.

One afternoon, music therapist Christina Britton Conroy was taking nursing home residents to activities. She was thrilled when a sweet, disoriented lady joined her group. “Mary, it’s so good to see you. Do you want to go to the Bible study or BINGO?” she asked.
 Mary replied, “I want to go to Lithuania.”

“An insightful, unique approach to helping people cope with the demands of dealing with the elderly. The writing is entertaining and insightful.”
 — John J. Daly, M.D., NYC Police Surgeon, St. Vincent’s Hospital, NYC

“... social workers, nursing-home and community center staffers, psychologists, and family members of patients with dementia/Alzheimer’s could all benefit from this information.”
 — Judy Foust, RN, US Army Hospital, retired, Low Vision Nursing Specialist, Lighthouse NYC

“... a great resource for caregivers, whether they are children of aging parents or professionals working in a health care settings. Conroy puts a new spin on the different ways to manage the elderly population. This book is a great reference and a great read.”
 —Donna Malech, R. N., P. H. N., Visiting Nurse Service, NYC

“A must in any caregiver’s library.”
 —Marie Sibilla, Psychotherapist, Private Practice, NYC
