A Spokane-area man died in a crash near LaGrande last Wednesday.

Preliminary information indicates that a 2005 Dodge Ram 2500 pickup, operated by Richard Arnold Cochrane, age 77, and passenger, Joanne Kay Cochrane, age 73, both from Spokane Valley, Washington, was traveling westbound on I-84 near milepost 277 when for unknown reasons, the vehicle crashed through a guardrail into the median and overturned.

Richard Cochrane suffered fatal injuries while Joanne Cochrane suffered serious injuries and was transported to the Grande Ronde Hospital for treatment.

One lane of the eastbound and westbound lanes were closed for approximately three hours following the crash, until both lanes were reopened.

OSP was assisted by La Grande Fire Department, North Powder Fire Department and Oregon Department of Transportation.
