Steven Russell Boles

Baker City, 1950-2017

Steven Russell Boles passed away suddenly, May 22, 2017 in Baker City at the age of 66.

He was born December 7, 1950 in Baker City, to William and Verla Boles. He attended South Baker Elementary, graduating from Baker Senior High in 1969. He attended both Eastern Oregon State College and Boise State. Steve completed his basic training in Fort Ord, CA and then served in the Oregon State National Guard. He was active business man, involved in several companies throughout his career. Although his main focused on his 30 years in insurance and underwriting business.

Steve is survived by his mother Verla Boles; sister Lynette Allen and husband Billy; son Luke Boles; grandson Taygen Boles. He is preceded in death by his father Bill Boles; grandparents Slim and Jewel Boles; grandparents Hugh and Laura Cathey; cousin Darrell Castoe.

Steve truly lived life to the fullest through simple pleasures. Talking with family and friends, spending time with his son Luke and grandson Taygen. Steve had an ability to reach people in both a deep and positive way.

Eastern Oregon and the time spent with family and friends was his foundation of and memories. From the Elkhorn Mountains to the Eagle Caps in particular. He loved hunting and fishing the Minam and North Fork at the Clearwater, Malheur, Troy, John Day waters and streams. He also enjoyed gold panning, hunting meteorites and rock hounding.

Steve had both a rogue and rare, solid sense of humor. His humor would surface itself as an unstoppable, immovable force. For Steve, it was the ticket to his happiness and success. His smiles were contagious had a lingering effect on all who were present.

He believed one could do more through instinct than education. He knew of nothing more exciting than living long term in a short term body. And this was no small feat for someone suffering from A.L.S. - Lou Gehrig's Disease.

He had a strong belief of real world ethics not being the same as legal ethics. He said, "All cases are won in the first three minutes."

Steve was a gifted speaker, motivator and salesman. He also loved to read, especially American history, autobiographies, and non-fiction. He could cultivate and tell the best stories from both his own experiences and knowledge.

There are many who will always love him for who he was and how he touched their lives. Memorial contributions can be made to the ALS Foundation or to an Alcoholics Anonymous Chapter of one's choice through Tami's Funeral Home & Cremation Services PO Box 543 Halfway, Oregon 97834.

The family asks you to please share your stories and memories of Steve at www.tamispinevalleyfuneralhome.com. There will be no funeral service at Steve's request. There are many who will always love him for who was and how he touched their lives. His memory is a blessing to those who knew him.

Gilbert Lopez

Baker City, 1947-2017

Gilbert Lopez, 69, of Baker City, Oregon passed away at his residence on June 6, 2017.

A memorial service was held for Gilbert at 2627 Church St., Baker City, Oregon at 2:00 p.m. on June 18, 2017. Arrangements have been entrusted to Gray's West & Co. Pioneer Chapel.

Octavino Lopez and Esmeralda (Garcia) Lopez welcomed Gilbert into the world on June 24, 1947 in Barstow, California. He attended and graduated from Barstow High School and worked as a dishwasher until he retired in 1981.

He married Jewel Seiber on September 3, 1987 in Las Vegas. Gilbert's hobbies included fishing, completing puzzles and fill-it-in puzzle books, frequenting yard sales, watching games shows and following sports.

Gilbert is survived by his wife Jewel Lopez and sons Mike Rogers and George Morris all of Baker City, Oregon.

To light a candle in memory of Gilbert or to leave condolences for his family, please visit: www.grayswestco.com.

Douglas Crawford

Baker City, 1945-2017

Douglas Lewis Crawford, 72, entered his eternal life June 7, 2017 in Baker City, Oregon. A memorial service was held at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, June 13 at Coles Tribute Center followed by a graveside service at Rock Creek Cemetery near Haines, Oregon.

Doug was born March 31, 1945 in Nampa, Idaho to Lester and Margaret (Fillmore) Crawford. He graduated from Nampa High School and entered the U.S. Navy where he served four years aboard a fast combat supply ship during the Vietnam War.

Doug married Carolyn DeBock on November 29, 1968.

In 1969, Doug went to work for Idaho Power Company in the hydro-power plants as a control room operator. During his career, he worked at power plants on the Snake River from Twin Falls, Idaho to the three Hells Canyon power plants.

He retired from the Idaho Power Company in 2006 and he and Carolyn settled in the Baker valley on land close to the Elkhorn Mountains. He enjoyed the view of the beautiful mountains and watched for elk on the nearby hillside.

Doug enjoyed hunting elk with his friends and relatives and while living on the Snake River, he was an avid water skier. After moving to Baker Valley, he enjoyed hiking, snowshoeing and going to coffee with his friends. One of his highlights was a multi-day backpack trip he made with Howard Britton and friends across the Eagle Cap Wilderness.

Doug always enjoyed a good joke and liked to tell an entertaining story about an event, often laughing about himself. His good humor and generosity will be missed and remembered by his family and friends.

He is survived by his wife Carolyn; children David and Karen; son-in-law Bill Hank; grandchildren, Shane Crawford, Tabor Hank and Charlotte Hank; and his sister Darlene (Franklin) Bramon.

Donations in his memory may be made to the Baker City Playground Improvement Fund (in 2014 Doug helped build the new play structure in Geiser-Pollman Park) or to the charity of ones choice. This may be done through Coles Tribute Center, 1950 Place Street, Baker City, OR 97814.

To light a candle for Doug or leave a condolence for the family, please visit: www.colestributecenter.com.
