Expect delays for July parades in area

Expect delays, possible detours along short sections of US20, US26, US30, US395, OR7, OR82 and OR204 for July parades and events in several eastern Oregon communities. Parades that impact travelers on July 4 will be held in the cities of Burns (Harney Co.), Prairie City (Grant Co.), Dayville (Grant Co.), Imbler (Union Co.), Wallowa (Wallowa Co.) and Haines (Baker Co.).

Activities for the Hells Canyon Motorcycle Rally in Baker City (Baker Co.) will result in road closures and detours in the downtown area July 6 - 9. On July 8, parades and other activities related to the Elgin Stampede will temporarily impede traffic in Elgin (Union Co.)

Commercial vehicles and other travelers should expect delays and possible detours in these areas.

Below are highway sections and approximate event times and traffic impact information.

Trucking firms can also see attached letters from ODOT's Motor Carrier Transportation Division (MCTD) with further details, including detour maps for the cities of Burns, Haines, Imbler, Wallowa and Elgin.
