Sheriff to supervise call center

Harvey said, "That's my position because that's what my task was to do. One other thing that bothers me is our Sheriff has said he doesn't need an advisory board, part of the reason we have advisory boards is an outlet for the public to come and be a part of, air their concerns. We have an adopted budget that meets the needs but now we are talking where can we get more money to do the same thing."

Downing spoke up and said, "I do want to state that I do work there (911 dispatch) as a reserve so I see both sides of this. But I am here tonight as the City Mayor. I'm not here as a reserve."

City Council commented among themselves with Councilor Abell feeling

Ash's proposal provided continuity and Joseph stating Sheriff Ash's proposal gives "the best service in the meantime and gives us the opportunity to evaluate and make changes for the future if we need to."

Thomas also supported Ash's proposal "mainly because the dispatchers are behind it."

Warner told Council that a management agreement could be crafted in a matter of days and that he felt with the start of the new fiscal year days away time was of the essence.

With four City Councilors present, quorum requirements were met for any voting the Council needed to make.

Joseph made a motion that the City and County get together to draft a management agreement for the Sheriff to run the dispatch center. That motion heard a second by Thomas.

Before being voted on Abell added there had been a lot of discussion and that all discussions between the City and the County had been in good faith, and she felt that should be noted in the motion.

The motion was amended and before the vote Harvey added, "It needs to be perfectly clear that the budget has been approved and that those are the dollars that you need to be working with. The County will not be coming up with any more."

Downing responded by saying, "Yes. So noted."

Councilors present then voted unanimously in favor of the motion.

The afternoon of Monday, July 3, 2017 (the first business day of the fiscal year) 911 Dispatch was turned over to Sheriff Travis Ash for direction.
