Quilt Show Winners:

Terri Bell was the winner of the 2017 raffle quilt—a large quilt that members of the Quilt Club had fun making together, explained Angie Turner.

People's Choice winners were chosen by everyone attending the show voting for their favorite quilt.

Three gift baskets were awarded each day.

On Friday the 1st place went to Jan McLean for her State Bird quilt.

2nd place went to Kathleen Davis and 3rd place went to Monica Bailey.

On Saturday the 1st place winner was Virginia Lowry for her Snow Globe quilt.

2nd place went to Alice Besler.

3rd place went to Kathleen Davis.

"Lorelei Bradley is a unique and magical heroine as entrancing as the cupcakes she bakes. With a delicious plot ... surprisingly funny as well."

- Christopher Durang, Tony Award-winning playwright

Lorelei's cupcakes aren't just ordinary cupcakes...

Quirky Lorelei Bradley knows what lonely hearts crave—hers being the loneliest heart of all. When she arrives in town, no one is prepared for what she has in store. Luxurious and alluring to the point of being nearly magical, Lorelei's confections lead her straight out of despair and into very her own bakery by the sea. The problem is, she's a woman on the run.

... they're the cure for empty hearts and broken dreams.

Cobweb Corners, New Hampshire has only a few police officers—one being handsome Chase Harris. But Chase is surprised when the only thing more interesting than Sea Salt Caramel or Madagascar Vanilla and Honey is their mysterious and entrancing creator. With a bag of stolen cash under Lorelei's bed and a few illegal trespassing incidents under her belt, will he wind up arresting her, or will she whisk her way into his broken heart? What is her secret anyway?
