Joanie Gail McClaughry

Baker City, 1940-2017

Joanie Gail McClaughry, 61, of Baker City, died on July 28, 2017 at the home of her niece in Union, Oregon.

Joanie McClaughry

Joanie McClaughry was a loving mother who loved her family. She was a sister to 10 other siblings and was termed an "identical mirror" twin as well. Joanie lived a beautiful life. She always loved going to the beach in her younger days in Newport Oregon, where she had originally moved from to eastern Oregon, where she and her daughter had moved in 1992. Joanie was always a loving caring person, she loved to work the Union County Life Stock Show and Haines Stampede during the 4th July dealing blackjack like a professional blackjack dealer.

But one of Joanie's favorite times of the year was Halloween and Christmas. She would always make her own costumes being very creative, she definitely had a talent for that and Christmas every year she would make sure her nieces and nephews always had gifts to make them smile.

Those who knew Joanie always knew she was a hard worker and had a good sense of humor. Even growing up her and her twin Jeanie would always have a trick up their sleeves, they were basically the double trouble twins.

One thing Joanie's family will never forget is how much of a loving mother she was to her daughter Atheena McClaughry and how much she did for her family. She will surely be missed and loved. Her smile and laugh will always be in our hearts everywhere we go and she was definitely loved by many and will be missed by many.

She was preceded in death by her parents William Thomas McClaughry and Virginia Aue and her brother David McCaughry formally of North Powder, Oregon passed in 1990.

Joanie is survived by 2 children Atheena McClaughry and Jonathon Paul McClaughry and 9 surviving siblings are Carol Sivley of Alabama, Jeanie McClaughry of Baker City, Oregon, Jeff McClaughry of North Powder, Oregon, Cyndi McClaughry of North Powder, Oregon, Kathleen McClaughry of Haines, Oregon, Patricia Culver of Mount Vernon, Oregon, Julie Flood of Hood River, Oregon, Jim Durham of Hood River, Oregon, Devaree Milhon of Queens Creek, Arizona; Also many nieces, nephews, great nieces, nephews and great great niece and nephew that she loved very much.

For those who would like to make a donation in memory of Joanie, may do so to the Special Olympics Baker or Union County through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home & Cremation Services PO Box 543 Halfway, Oregon 97834. On line condolences may be shared at www.tamis-pinevalleyfuneralhome.com

Komoto and the other drummers performed five songs; some traditional pieces, a song that is "ever-changing" that they created, and some with their own twists added to them. They also performed a piece called "Drum Battle," where they would play and respond to each other.

The drums used were handmade from oak barrels with cowhide. Some of the drums are as old as the group and they have only replaced two over the years.

One member, Ellen Burnell, played the Fue a traditional Japanese Bamboo flute. She played two songs; Nanastunoko, a song about a mother bird asking other animals to see her nest, and Souran Bushi a song from Northern Japan about a fisherman.

The other members were Pinpaka Mccready, Caroline Bruton, Morgan Bruton, and Flavia Bruton.

According to their handout, "Kawa Taiko has performed at public, private, civic and commercial events over the years. Some notable venues that they have appeared at are: America's Global Village Festival, Zoo Boise, Boise State University, Poise Depot, Ontario Veterans Day Parade, Malheur County Fair, Idaho Botanical Garden, Hyde Park Street Fair, Indian Creek Festival, Ontario Obon Nite, College of Idaho, and at conferences, schools, and nursing homes."

At the end of their performance, the drummers welcomed adults and children to see and play the different instruments they had.

Following Kawa Taiko, Marilyn Shollenberger performed with other local artists for a traditional jam. Shollenberger performed on the keyboard and vocals. Elaine Logsdon and Gloria Kandle played acoustic/electric guitars and vocals. Frederik Anderson was on bass, Ron Yarnell played electric guitar and vocals, Doug Warr played electric guitar, and Tim Ballard played the acoustic/electric, bass and vocals.
