

Joyful Times

BY JOY BROCK
Social Editor, The Challenger

Mrs. Bennett Grimmett of 33 N. Monroe street graciously entertained the teachers of Boise grade school at her newly decorated home this week. The occasion of the affair was to wish everyone a happy vacation. Refreshments were served and the guests relaxed and enjoyed the atmosphere of her attractive and spacious home.

A newly formed club, the Chariteers, gave an introductory tea recently at the Williams avenue branch YWCA. This organization is also the latest branch to the Association of Colored Women's clubs. There are 14 members affiliated with this charitable organization, which include: Mesdames Irene McDougald, Perlene White, Eunice Watkins, Addie Jean Haynes, Ann Jones, Bobbie Nunn, Bettie Fuller, Phyllis Smith, June Linton, Harriet Brown, Joyce Strachan, Wilba Lamar and Misses Rose Marie Brock and Sadie Grimmett.

The Beta Psi Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority gave a $100 scholarship from their 1952 Jabberwock to Miss Mildred Robinson of Jefferson high school. Miss Robinson plans to attend Lewis and Clark college and major in physics and chemistry. Chairman of the scholarship committee was Mrs. Bennett Grimmett.

A farewell party was given recently by the faculty of Boise school in the home of the Principal Leslie Chase. Mr. Chase will be leaving Boise at the end of the school year for Columbia university where he will work towards his master's degree. According to the PTA and faculty members, Chase has done a superb job during his two-year stay at Boise. He was given two savings bonds by the faculty and a movie camera set from the PTA for his going-away present.

A bride of Sunday, May 31, Miss Lilly Evans to Mr. Benjamin Webb took place at the home of her aunt, Mrs. James Watson. Rev. Jesse Boyd officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony.

The bride wore a navy blue suit with blue accessories. Her corsage was made of baby orchids. Maid of honor, Miss Rose Marie Brock, was the bride's only attendant.

The maid of honor wore a bluish gray suit, blue accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The family and a few close friends were present at the wedding. The newlyweds took a short trip to Canada and are now residing in Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. W. Franklin and two sons arrived this week from West Point, Virginia. They are visiting Mrs. Franklin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wirt Morton Sr., for approximately 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Gragg of Vancouver, Washington, are playing hosts to their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burton (formerly Bennye Gragg) and their two children. The Burtons arrived last week from Texas and plan to spend the entire summer with the Graggs. Samuel Burton just recently received his master's degree in education.

Rev. Mr. Wilson, minister from Tacoma, Washington, entertained three churches with his excellent youth choir last Saturday and Sunday. The youth moved the audiences with gospel songs such as: "Call Him By His Name," "Precious Memories," "Do You Know Him" and "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot." The choir sang to a packed audience at all three churches. Churches honored were Allen Temple, Bethel AME and Mt. Olivet.

Last Rites Held For Bonnie Bogle

Funeral services were held Tuesday at Colonial Mortuary for Mrs. Waldo (Bonnie Belle) Bogle, 67, active Portland clubwoman who died June 5. Burial was at Lincoln Memorial park.

Born in Paris Texas, Mrs. Bogle came to Portland in 1900. She was the wife of Waldo Bogle, 2923 S. E. 35th avenue.

Mrs. Bogle was a charter member of the Williams avenue YWCA and the Rosebud study club. She was past matron of Mt. Hood chapter No. 116 of Eastern Star.

Other survivors are a son, Richard, and a grandson.

Rose City Girls To Make Debut

tary education. This ambitious debutante hopes to finish at Lewis and Clark college and become a teacher.

She, too, is looking forward to the Coronation Ball with Bill Martin as her escort. She is being presented by her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Leggroan.

The youngest of the debs is 16-year-old Mildred Robinson, a graduate of Jefferson high school. Mildred is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Robinson and has resided in Portland for six years.

Mildred, in her warm and unassuming manner, will use her charm and grace on the campus of Lewis and Clark college where she will major in physics and chemistry. With this major, she hopes to become a research chemist. Mildred is being escorted to the dance by Richard Neal.

Bride-elect Given Lingerie Shower

A lingerie shower was given for Miss Joy Brock at the home of Mrs. Allie Jacobson, with Mrs. Myrtle White as co-hostess. Beautiful gifts of nylon and one soft cotton lingerie were received by the honored guest. Following the games and opening of the gifts, the guests were served a casserole dish of hot tamale and all the trimmings.

Guests present were: Mesdames Dorothy Berry, Juliet Banks, Lonetta Plummer, Ann Morlan, Sylvia Woods, Melba Hanna, Gertrude Rae, Dorothy Fatheree, Ruth Spencer, Dottie Allard, Marge Brown, Ruth Neal, Ruth Holley, Mary Baker, Letitia Brock, Miss Marceline Casey and Miss Rose Marie Brock.

We Miss Them!

Give a party recently? Just return home from a trip? What about your friend, did he get that appointment? We miss your little news items. A quick trip by The Challenger office will keep our news columns full.
