

Betty's Notebook

by Betty Jo Winters

Interesting and successful people for this week include Miss Joanne Perry.

Miss Perry, after considering teaching offers in Eugene, Oregon and parts of California decided on the one offered her by Carl Rhoda, Principal at Madras High School in Madras, Oregon.

Miss Perry's field is business. She teaches book-keeping, typing, and sophomore English. After classes, Miss Perry acts as the sponsors for the Pep Club and the Senior class.

A 1955 honor graduate of Hevert High School, Beaumont Texas, Miss Perry was chosen "Best Citizen" of her senior class. After working a year, Joanne continued her education in Oregon and entered Portland State College. She completed her studies and graduated from Oregon

State University in the summer of 1961.

Miss Perry is a volunteer worker for the Red Cross and a member of Beta Theta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority. Her hobbies include sewing, swimming, and cooking.

ALLISON BLAKELY

Another interesting and very intelligent person to note this week is Allison Blakely. Allison is a senior attending the University of Oregon in Eugene, Oregon. He was among the 1,058 students over the nation selected as winners of the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship for graduate students during 1962 and 1963.

Allison graduated from Jefferson High School in 1958. His activities there were very outstanding. He was a member of the Forensics Team and won the First-Place Award for the city-wide Voice of Democracy Contest. He was President of the National Honor Society, President of the Youth for Christ Club, a member of the Key Club, and served on several committees.

Allison is a member of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church and will graduate this June.

JOHN PENSON

Another prosperous and former 1958 graduate of Jefferson High School is John Penson. John has just completed a course at the Modern Barber College, located on 2nd and Madison. He is now positioned at Dean's Barber Shop on 213 N.E. Hancock.

While in High School, John entered the nation-wide Commercial Art Contest. Entries included: Drawing art metals, woodcrafts, art, and sculptor. John's entry fortunately won him two Gold Keys for the construction of a handsome pair of cuff links.

John's hobbies are bowling, dancing, and he stresses his main interest as barbering, which he plans to make a career of.

The youth group of the N.A. A.C.P. are quite active this season. At the present time, they are engaged in a series of lectures from local prominent people. The lectures concern the different situations and problems facing the Negro in Oregon and how they can be solved.

Sunday, April 8th Commissioner O. Bean met with them and discussed what the educational standards were to get in different government positions.

The youth group has 350 registered members. Their President is, Harold Brown senior at Jefferson.

Please continue to call ATLantic 4-6542 for interesting news reports concerning the youth in Oregon. It will be deeply appreciated.
