

Betty's Notebook

by Betty Jo Winters

This day, is not an unusual day. It is cloudy, and on this day, I accepted the job as youth editor for the Oregon Mirror. However, I hope that the weather does not symbolize a cloudy future for me as a writer for the Oregon Mirror.

I hope my column will be inspiring, educational, and above all interesting.

I will be reflecting the interest specifically education and otherwise of our up-coming youth.

It is interesting to note that our youth in Oregon are putting forth an effort to get ahead and achieve the goals our forefathers were unable to complete.

RICHARD PAYNE

Off to a magnificent start is Richard Payne. Richard is a senior and at the same time the senior-class president at Benson High School

Richard was selected from a numerous group of students to continue his studies and all-around athlete playing At Willamette University in Forest Grove, Oregon. He was granted a four-year academic scholarship in the field of education. Good luck Rich!

JEAN BRANNON

Neverously preparing for July wedding is Miss Jean Brannon, former student at Portland State College and presently second grade teacher at Boise elementary school. John Winters, former Portland State graduate also is the lucky fellow.

What would we do without education, and what would we do without Spring? Because Spring is the bright and cheery season for romance, love and marriage.

Cupid has been very busy this month. Recently engaged was Berna Dean DuBerry, graduate of University of Oregon and nursery teacher for Blessed Martin, to Willie O'rea, professional hockey player for the Los Angeles's Blades.

CAROLYN JOYNER

Speaking of teachers, Jefferson High School's drama instructor must be congratulated for her clever choice of selecting Carolyn Joyner and Newt Winters Jr. as the leading stars of the senior-class play this year. It is entitled, "Watyocall-it, Square". The play will run for two nights, April 6th and 7th. Tickets $1.00 for adults. It should be quite a play.

NEWT WINTERS

Mrs. Princess Morgan gave a birthday party for her son Otis Avritt celebrating his seventeenth birthday. The party was held at the home of his aunt Mrs. Barbara Parker on N. E. Emerson. A dozen teenagers spent the evening doing the twist and enjoying the smorgasbord. Otis a junior at Grant High was foot-ball captain last year. The party was well supervised by adult relatives.

This cloudy day draws to an end and so must this column. One last word before I go. In order to bring before the reading public, the various achievements of our Oregon youth, we are desirous of your cooperation in reporting items of interest call, ATLantic 4-6542.

YOUTH EDITOR

Betty Jo Winters, junior at Portland State College, majoring in education has consented to being the youth editor for the Oregon Mirror. She once before expressed her talent as youth editor for us in 1959.

She will cover all the news concerning youth in Oregon.

Contact her at ATLantic 4-6542 if you have any interesting news items.

RENOUD ELECTED

Notification has been received by the Housing Authority of Portland that its Chairman, Roy Renoud, has been elected to serve for a term of two years as a National Director of the National Housing Conference. This action was taken at the Annual Convention of NHC in Washington, D. C. The announcement stated that the award of this derectorship was predicated on the national prominence and recognition Renoud has achieved in the field of housing.
