

"WEDDING BELLS"

On May 26 a wedding was held at the Good Samaritan Church of God in Christ. The bride is the daughter of Rev. & Mrs. F. J. Crear at whose church the services were held. The services were conducted by Rev. Wilbert Hardy of Mt. Siani Church of God in Christ, and a close friend of the Crear family.

The Groom is the son of Mr. & Mrs. John W. Walton of San Francisco, California.

The bride wore a beautiful pink-lace gown. The bridal party was pink and blue. The maid of honor was Miss Kathryn Phillips of Berkeley, Calif. The bridesmaids were as follows: Fay Webster, Lillian Brewster, Alice Kession, and Moonie Ashberry. Best man was Charles Sims. Ushers: Rufus Crear, brother of the bride, Francis Brewster, Willis Allen, Green Ashberry.

The Groom's mother, Mrs. J. W. Walton arrived in Portland with the bride a week before the wedding and was a guest in the Crear home.

On May 24, Mrs. D. Lanier & daughter, Mrs. C. Stiggers entertained with a luncheon at her home the bride & groom, bride's parents, and the groom's mother.

The newly weds will make their home in San Francisco, Calif. where the groom is in the real estate business with his father.

The couple plan to take their honeymoon at the world's fair in Seattle, Washington.

The couple were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Garcia of 1744 N. E. 17th while in the city.

In the beautiful edifice of the Hughes Memorial Methodist Church, Saturday, June 2, 1962 — The Rev. Cortlandt Cambric, performed a very inspiring wedding ceremony, joining together in Holy wedlock Miss Jean Winters and Mr. Joe Massey. The Bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Newt Winters, this City. The Bride wore a white lace over net gown with veil and white. The vows said in the lower level, it was well attended. The couple will live in Portland.

Here stands Mr. and Mrs. Joe Massey, lovely couple just married.

Now comes time for the sampling of the cake and there is an old saying, the way to a man's heart is thru his stomach, Soooo
