Quilt Blocks Sewed For Farm Home

CANBY, April 30 — The Canby WCTU helds its regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. George Berg, Friday, with potluck dinner. The forenoon was spent in sewing quilt blocks for the Corvallis Farm Home. Mrs. R. O. Andrus called the meeting to order at 2:00 P. M. The group sang. Mrs. H. Kraft, Rev. Munson and Mrs. Andrus led in prayer. Mrs. John Koehler and Mrs. D. Cutsforth sang a duet. Devotions were given by Rev. Munson, a minister of the Free Brethren Lutheran Church of Seattle, Wash. Mrs. R. C. Start gave Union Signal reports. Mrs. Andrus spoke on the Bryson Bill requesting the members to write letters to senators requesting to stop entire manufacture and sale of beverage alcohol for the duration of the war.

It was also voted to send a telegram to Secretary Stettinus at the San Francisco conference stating our prayers are with them, and that we as a WCTU group deplore the free flow of spiritous liquor.

Mrs. Pearl Braddock gave a report on soldiers and sailors, she stated that the Canby WCTU is the only one in the district contributing monthly to the Christian Service Center in Portland.

Communications on the LTL were read by Mrs. R. C. Start; Mrs. Luke Farthing, Mrs. Sutton and Miss Hazel Swigert gave readings; Mrs. John Eid, read a poem; Mrs. Effie Nelson reported on Farm Home Work and requested that aprons and pillow slips be made and old cotton blankets be brought to the next meeting which will be held on the regular fourth Friday of next month in the Bethany church. The mothers of soldiers and sailors will be honored.

One hundred and fifty pounds of clothing was brought in for the war drive.

Present were Mrs. R. O. Andrus, Mrs. C. H. Frum and Ellen Ann, Mrs. Lars Melum, Miss Hazel Swi-
