

SENIORS GIVE CLASS DAY EXERCISES HERE

Class of '24 Presents One of Best Programs Ever Given At U. H. S.

The Senior class day exercises were held on Thursday evening, May 15, in the U. H. S. Auditorium. The program was one of the most original that has been presented by any graduating class. A record crowd was in attendance.

The program was opened by some announcements by Mr. Gary. Following these, Amelia Paulin, salutatorian, gave her address.

The class poem, written and given by Annette Adcock, was well applauded.

The class history by Ruth Lund told of the many social functions which had been given by or for the class of '24 and of the many activities in which they had taken a part.

A vocal solo, "Out on the Deep" by Mr. R. E. Jackson, science teacher, was greatly appreciated.

Dennis Kidby, class prophet, gave a very fitting account of the future, fifteen years after the class of '24 left the portals of Union High School.

Jack Hempstead, author of the last Will and Testament of the 1924 class, left some very suitable gifts to the lower classmen.

The Senior class rendered the class song in a very delightful manner. The words were written by Mrs. Duncan Christiansen Sr.

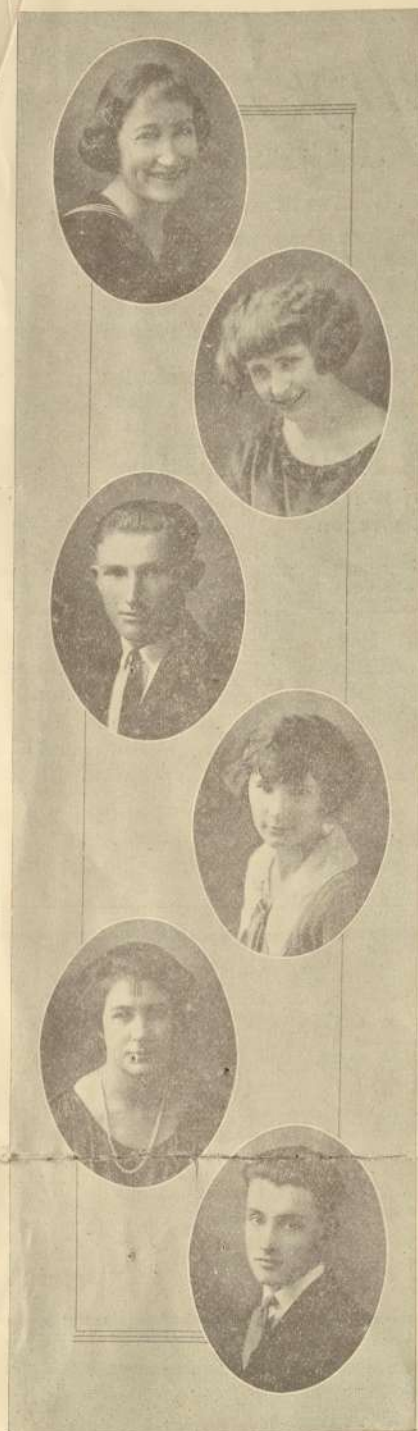

After the song the valedictorian, Mary Zaniker, gave an address which held the attention of the entire audience.

A piano solo, "By the Waters of Minnetonka", by Mary Louise Merrick was greatly appreciated.

The U. H. S. quartet, composed of Mr. R. E. Jackson, Earl Echaubel, Garnie Cranor, and Roy Buckles, sang

A merry party of boys and girls gathered at the West Linn depot on Wednesday evening, May 21 and later went to the home of Alice Lewthwaite where they gave a farewell (surprise) send-off on Alice, a Senior. Miss Lewthwaite will leave for New York soon after school is out.

A royal chicken banquet was served at 6:30 by Miss Alice Stone, aunt of Miss Lewthwaite.

After the banquet, the guests danced on the lawn and porch for some time, following which they departed for the Liberty theater in Oregon City.

Those enjoying the banquet and party were: Messrs. John Moffatt, Marvin Hickman, Elmer Simpson, Roderick Porter, Charles Reed, Garnie Cranor; Misses Leona Fox; Ruth Robinson; Ruby Hogan; Evangeline Christiansen, Mary Zaniker, Alice Lewthwaite and Miss Alice Stone.

ANNUAL SCHOOL PICNIC HELD ON HIGH CAMPUS YESTERDAY

The annual student body picnic was held on the high school grounds, Wednesday, May 29.

Early in the school year the entire student body was divided in two sides in order to carry on a contest. It was understood that the side defeated must banquet the other side. The "Reds" won the contest so the "Blues" under the leadership of Elsie Turel, had charge of the "eats" and entertainment for the picnic.

A small boy was holding a black and tan dog by the collar, when a smartly dressed young man passed and remarked, "Is he bad to bite, sonny?" "No, answered the boy, he can't bite, but he eats cheese, and I was holding him until you got by."

Elsie Junken, (Riding with ?)—Do you mind if I sing?
Gentleman Friend—No, I work in a boiler factory.
