

Seniors To Graduate

It is claimed that he has contributed more than any other one student to increasing the school's unusual spirit.

Veatrice Rauch as manager of the Green and Gold has been active also. She has taken part in glee club work, etc.

Jack Graw, has been a prominent athlete, and captained the 1923 football squad in his senior year.

Ruth Robinson is a popular girl and was queen of the Clackamas county fair.

Another member of the class who took part in debate, and organization work is Evangeline Christiansen.

Glenn Smith has been prominent in athletics during the past year. He was baseball captain of the U. H. S. champions.

Mary Louise Merrick took part in the senior class play and other similar events.

The honor students were in order of scholastic standing: Mary Zaniker, Amelia Paulin, Ruth Lund, Dennis Kidby, Jack Hempstead.

The class as a whole has been one of the most successful in every branch of school work as well as the largest U. H. S. has ever produced. It will be a large place to fill that the class of 1924 makes by graduating tonight.

C. O. Main Gives Great Baccalaureate Address

The fifth annual Baccalaureate exercises were held in the Union High School Auditorium on Sunday, May 25, at 11:00 A. M.

The processional march by the Seniors, accompanied by Miss Clara Bartholomew of Willamette was the first number on the interesting program. The other numbers were: Piano Solo, Miss Bartholomew; Announcements, Principal J. L. Gary; Invocation, Rev. J. R. Schaeffer; Selection, Girl's Quartet; Reading of First Psalm, Rev. J. R. Schaeffer; Baccalaureate Address, "The Higher Partnership," Mr. C. O. Main; Benediction, Rev. J. R. Schaeffer.

The Baccalaureate Address, "The Higher Partnership," delivered by C. O. Main, was by far the greatest and best address ever delivered in the history of U. H. S. It was the opinion of all who heard Mr. Main, that he was the best speaker of any, who have spoken in the U. H. S. Auditorium.

The Girl's quartet, composed of Misses Elsie Turel, Veatrice Rauch, Joyce Mercer and Vivian Rauch, gave a splendid musical number. They were accompanied by Miss Evangeline Christiansen.

CLASS DAY BIG EVENT

a very original song about the Senior sneak day picnic at Oswego Lake.

John Moffatt, Senior class president presented a large key, the key to Senior privileges, to Garnie Cranor, Junior president.

Following this program the audience departed to the gymnasium to view the manual training exhibit and the swimming tank.

Soph—"You can either drink a pint of H<sub>2</sub>O or take a ducking in the tank."

Lacy Wallace—"Duck me in the tank. I'll not take any of your old chemicals."

Mr. Jackson—Explain evaporation.
Garnie Cranor—When I study three hours and forget all I read.
