

Snoopin' Jupe

By Earl (Corn on the Cob) Merkle
Censored Version

Ed Woodworth seen taking Jean Kylo out New Years eve. Boy, that guy seems to be getting around lately, and I don't mean geographically.

Say, did you guys hear about my new neighbor. He is a real freckled face kid with air-cooled teeth. (Courtesy of Reader's Digest. . Ed)

You know last Saturday, I fell over fifty feet. Boy, I am not kidding one bit. . . those street cars were really crowded.

The other day in assembly when we had our quiz program, I was sure surprised that they said Elliot was a specialist in history. I thought they knew that he specialized in women only.

A lot of New Years resolutions were made, but I'll bet that there are a lot of them that have been broken. I know, because I made some myself.

Bob Baker insists that Betty Taylor is his dream girl. Say did you guys and gals hear who Baker had out New Year's Eve? Ask him the one about Lil Audrey.

Willamette To Speak At

Of special interest to all parents and friends in this district is the announcement of the opportunity to get first hand information on family relations from a specialist.

Through the efforts of the Oswego, Bolton, Sunset and Willamette P.T.A. Study clubs. Mrs. Buena Maris, state extension specialist in Family Relationship from Oregon State college will hold a parents night meeting on Friday night, Jan. 17, at 8 o'clock and will talk on "Leading Horses to Water."

Those who wish to go out track see Mr. Fors, 7th Period.

Advertising Display Discontinued Until Spring

The advertising display, which has been kept in the main hall, will be discontinued until spring, due to the inconvenience of getting the clothes to and from the stores in this stormy weather.

The stores that have had displays on exhibition were Simons Dress Shop, Audre's Dress Shop, The Style Shop and the Cotton Shop, all being Oregon City's leading dress shops.
