A Vote of Thanks

At a time when our thoughts are turned toward commencement, graduation, and the reception of honors, it is only fitting that we should here give a vote of thanks and appreciation to two persons. These two persons, Doris Zimmerman, editor of The Amplifier and Marjorie Huiras, manager of The Amplifier, have fulfilled their duties well.

Doris has worked long and hard on such details as make-up, editorials, headlines and such things that go to make up a paper. In addition to that she has had full responsibility for each issue of the paper.

Marjorie has worked faithfully on the financial end in order that West Linn might be able to support a publication such as this.

Both girls have been successful in their posts and to them goes a well deserved vote of thanks and appreciation.—L. B.

Teachers Plan Summer Vacations

This year the faculty have arranged their plans for vacations.

Mrs. Coan plans to go to Seattle to join her husband, who is in the navy. They will leave from there to "points unknown." She hopes "to be back here sometime."

Mr. Howard plans taking graduate work at University of Oregon. He will live at home but go (Continued on Page 4)

ROUND ABOUT SCHOOL

The main topic of conversation this week seems to be the band's trip to Tacoma. Morton (Playboy) Parks came home with the name, address, and phone number of one of the more beautiful damsels up there. In an exclusive interview he stated she may soon have his pin. How that pin of his does travel. Blenda Rhodes—well, you heard about that. Frosh Wayne Robertson and Chuch Marx had a lot of fun sticking their lily white tootsies out of the window of their berth until the car was put directly behind a switching engine and soot started to pour in. Maxine Chaney went to Seattle for the week-end and on her way back listened to Peggie Jene McLure sing her contest number. Senior cards are floating around now. Some of the more original ones are engraved, quote. "D.W. Hoss Herndon," "Mr. Billie Etchison," "Junior Reed." Nothing like a bit of originality say we. Mike Booth and Kathleen Dalzell are one of the most seen twosomes around school nowadays. Pete Blyth and Verle Day haven't done so bad either. Tom Ray seems quite infatuated with a senior brunette. It is rumored that a little freshman is all a flutter because Mr. Ray came back to school and occupies the seat across the aisle from her. Do Dona Nygren and

SHOO YOUR FLIES

Lady—"Why don't you shoo your flies?"

Proprietor of restaurant—"Oh, its so hot today I thought I'd let them run around barefoot."

Isabel Vinson still have so much fun in Algebra class? This column seems to be reeking with underclassmen, but the seniors are practically a thing of the past now, so why not concentrate on the ones who are still important? So far everyone has looked rather disgusted when ye correspondent pulled this one. See what you think of it. What did one ear say to the other ear? So you live on this Block too? Well, maybe it isn't soo good after all. Here is a sly rumor but don't tell anyone. The Annual might actually come out next week or the week after or possibly later. Encouraging isn't it? Pardon me, Dave Williams. As long as there is nothing else (Did I say
