

Few Changes Will Be Made In Schedule

There will be little change in the schedule for next year, however there will be a few new subjects and some present subjects will be changed.

Mr. Goetzl will teach journalism, speech and dramatics, for which students will receive English credit. These three subjects will be taught as laboratory subjects, such as chemistry, physics, and agriculture are taught now.

The French and German languages will be dropped, only Spanish and Latin will be retained.

Miss Moe, dean of girls, will have first period as a consolation period for girls. A period may also be arranged for boys with Mr. Oppenlander, dean of boys.

In freshman and sophomore physical education and health, one semester will be used in physical education while the other will be used for health. First aid and lifesaving will be definitely stressed, according to with army officials, who encourage Mr. Gary, who has conferred courage him to do so. Juniors and seniors will be expected to enter some extra-curricular activity.

Miss Smith, the present library teacher, has been engaged for a very interesting subject the sixth period. Miss Smith, who is an artist in metal art will instruct beaten work in silver, brass and bronze. Miss Moffat will have the library that period.

W. L. Golfers Go To Eugene

West Linn's golf team traveled to Eugene Friday to take part in match between high schools from both Oregon and Washington. It was one of the largest high school tournaments in the northwest.

Playing in rain and hail the boys were very good, taking ninth place out of eighteen teams.

Those who went on the trip were Pete Blyth, Tom Ray, "Wild" Stevens, Jr. Roe, and Ernie Butts.

The boys stayed at the Sigma Chi Frat.

Stevens, being a senior, will be the only one not returning next year.

Lions Defeat Sherwood Men

The Lions defeated the Sherwood Bulldogs in a nine-inning game on the West Linn field, April 26 with a score of 6 to 3.

Podbiolan, the Bulldog hurler, struck out seventeen West Linn men during the game. The Sherwood nine succeeded in getting two runs in the second inning and one in the sixth.
