

Jack--Aw, there too
 biased
 Bob--Biased?
 Jack--Yeh--whenever I go out with them its always bi-us this and
 bi-us that..

When Pat was brought into court, the judge
 said, "What brought you in here, Pat?"
 "Two policemen," replied Pat.
 "Drunk, I suppose,"
 said the judge sympa-
 thetically.
 "Yes, sir both of them," returned Pat.

Soph: You ought to take chloroform."
 Fresh: Who teaches
 it?"

Vernonia "Timberline"
 He: Dancing is in my blood.
 She: Then your circulation must be bad.
 It hasn't reached your
 feet yet.
 Gaston Gleam.

Lady President-- What
 book has helped you
 most?

New Member My husband's check book.

Wolf in Lamb's?
 Mary had a little lamb

An Oregon lamb, by heck

And everywhere that Mary went

The poor sap paid the check.

The other day, a company captain said
 to his men, "The man who sneaked out of
 barracks last night
 and met a girl in the woods will step forward. COMPANY HALT.

F. F. A. News

Twelve West Linn F.
 F.A. members journeyed to Corvallis last Thursday morning to represent their chapter in a state wide
 Future Farmers of America convention at the state college.

Frank Bracelin and Richard Goold, the West Linn delegates
 met with other selected delegates while the other members, Bob Donovan, Lovell Bruck,
 Raymond Scheela, Ralph
 Eligson, Guy Foreman,
 Jerry Ryan, Paul Miken,
 Floyd Berning, Wesly
 Belier and Bob Belieu.
 Bruck placed second in the sheep judging contest while the dairy
 team placed fifth.

The representatives
 met the requirements
 for a Keystone Chapter
 which is the highest
 award possible.
