Admission prices for the Ball are thirty-five and fifty-five cents.

Awards

Scholarships

Two West Linn girls were awarded scholarships to Marlyhurst college last week. Blenda Rhodes won a two year scholarship to study the harp at an audition last Saturday, May 2. She has been quite active with the harp during her high school career here at West Linn.

Phyllis Miller was awarded a Honorary scholarship, consisting of one year's tuition by the Faculty scholarship committee. Phyllis plans to study the languages at Marlyhurst, specifically, English, Latin, and Spanish.

Music Awards

At the district music contest held April 21 and 22 at Hillsboro, the West Linn Music Department set a new record. Seventy-five percent of the events qualified for the Regional contest that will be held in Eugene, May 15 and 16.

This year the West Linn Band will again go to the regional it being the only band that received a straight one from all of the judges. The newly formed Saxophone sextet and Boy's small ensemble will also compete.

The soloists that are entitled to go are, Joyce Quint, Darrell Thompson, Gene Dechamp, Vivian Clifford, Bob Bradley, Jane Aden, Bonnie Baty, Gordon Myhra, Janet Wievesiek and Blenda Rhodes.
