

LETTERMAN'S CLUB

When asked what the Letterman's club would do this year, Mr. Brown, advisor, said, "I don't even know who is in it. Plans have not been made for a meeting or for any activities during the year."

HONOR SOCIETY

The suspense will soon be broken. An eligibility list for the Honor society has been made. Bids will be sent to prospective members as soon as there is a meeting. New members who want pins will be contacted soon. Pearls will be given to the second year members and, rubies to seniors who have been members for three years. Those on the list are: Ray Kestek, Dorothy Habel, Carol Fitzpatrick, Maxine Fitzpatrick, Pat George, Wayne Graham, Mary Kern, Valjean Madsen, Betty Magennis, Shirley Mattson, Jay McMurren, Barbara Murry, Cornelia Nichols, Etta Payne, Jane Perry, Barbara Pittwood, Alice Read, Donna Shainholtz, Delores Sherman, Don Smith and Dorothy Wanker.

HI-Y

Plans for a coming program to be given before the West Linn student body were discussed but no definite conclusion was reached. The Hi-Y club meeting held October 12 for new members was held, those elected were: Harvey Myhra, Harold Myhra, Wesley Stauffer, Jim Zittle, Bob Brending, and Earl Grassman.

The boys decided that they would sell War Stamps every Tuesday and Thursday during the lunch hour.

Bits From There

The following is dedicated to the Chemistry Students:

Sing a song of sulphide
A beaker full of lime,
Four and twenty test tubes
Breaking all the time.
When the hood is opened,
Fumes begin to reek,
Isn't that an awful mess
To have five times a week?
(huh, Mr. Shearer)

All the world loves a lover.
You are all the world to me,
therefore you love me.
Simple, isn't it?

The frog:
What a wonderful bird the frog are—
When he stand, he sit almost;
When he hop, he fly almost.
He ain't got no sense hardly,
He ain't got no tail hardly either.
When he sit, he sit on what
He ain't got ALMOST.

Wife: "Will you love me when my hair turns to silver?"
Hubby: "Why not? Haven't I stuck with you through brown, red, and black?"

I think that I shall never see
A girl refuse a meal that's free.
A girl whose hungry eyes aren't fixed
Upon a coke that's being mixed.
A girl who doesn't always wear
A bunch of junk to match her hair.
Gals are loved by guys like me
'Cause gosh! Who wants to kiss a tree.

Ain't it so . . .
I love you; therefore, I am a lover.

Miss Ethel McRae, one of the new members of the faculty, is a native Oregonian. Our Dramatics and Journalism teacher hails from the City of Roses. After attending the Rose City grammar school she attended Grant high school and Linfield college, all in Portland. While in high school Miss McRae took active parts in debate and dramatics.

While attending Dramatics school at the University of Washington Miss McRae said that she had fun participating in plays put on in a modern penthouse theatre. The stage itself is in the middle of the enormous room and the audience surrounds it. During intermission refreshments consisting of cookies and coffee are served to all. The final show Miss McRae took part in was "The Women" which is one of her favorite plays.

After her schooling Miss McRae started her teaching career in Bonneville. While there she had two very narrow escapes from death during some of the big snowstorms. Once she was trapped in a train which went over an embankment, and another time while marooned in a cabin during a snowstorm. She has also taught at Hillsboro and St. Helens, Oregon.

Miss McRae is a favorite of the students of West Linn and we wish her loads of success.
