

JUNIORS CHOOSE ST. PATRICK THEME

Hey! Bring out those fancy go-to-metein' clothes, gals and guys, and let's go a-steppin'! Once more the time has come for the juniors to sponsor a social affair; this time it's the gala event about which everyone is talking—the Junior Prom!

Although hampered by the necessity of holding it in the cafeteria, the juniors plan to make this a dance everyone will remember for a long, long time. Under the able guidance of the main dance committee, Earl Miller, Jean Hopp, Jane Culver, Sue Earlenbaugh, Alden Rondeau, Dave Gray, Miss Thornton, and, of course, Mr. Hays, all arrangements have been made for music; decorations are going up; refreshments are being prepared; and everything in general is just simply "ducky."

Jack Woodward's five-piece orchestra will make with the music starting at nine o'clock sharp and ending promptly at twelve. When you aren't dancing to heavenly music, you will probably find yourself either in front of the refreshment bar, drinking green river punch with a scoop of ice cream floating in it, or looking admiringly at the beautiful green and white decorations on the ceiling and walls which brightly illustrate the theme of the dance, "When Irish Eyes Are Smilin'."

Chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Culver, Mr. and Mrs. Hopp, Miss Thornton and Mr. Hays.

Remember, let's all turn out tonight and have the time of our lives!

The junior class pictures should be turned into Miss Ring now before the end of the day together with the dollar for printing cost. Hey, students! Don't forget that May court elections are coming up and we all want a worthy queen, so let's be thinking about our own choice!

O. C. MUSICIANS AID CAMPAIGN

Oregon City entered into West Linn's student body campaigning when 6 musicians, sponsored by the "Daney for President" committee, invaded the halls and gave out with an impromptu serenade Thursday, March 2.

Their most requested song was the "Johnson Rag." Next was "In the Mood." They also played "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Darktown Strutter's Ball," "South," and "St. Louis Blues March."

The fellows who participated were: Lynn Teadtke, trumpet; Bill Freeman, clarinet; Dick Graham and Jim Carlisle, trombone; Bob Fisher, drums, and Woody Brown.

BRENDING RETURNS IN DIFFERENT ROLE

An ex-West Linn high student body president, Bob Brending, has returned but in a different position.

He is a practice teacher from Lewis and Clark College and has taken over Mr. Brown's fifth period social-econ class and fourth period boys' physical education class. He will be here for 12 weeks.

Brending was student body president in 1944. He transferred to West Linn in his junior year.

"School hasn't changed much; being back makes me reminiscent," says Brending.

OSWEGO HIGH TO OPEN IN '51

The Lake Grove and Oswego freshmen and sophomores will go to the new Lake Oswego high school in the fall of 1951. Mr. Elle said that all the students attending the meeting, the freshmen next year, all the students who live in the Oswego area and go to Portland schools, Tigard, or Oregon City will have to attend this new high school.

The new high school will have almost the same subjects as West Linn. Mr. Elle is a chairman of a board that is planning the school. The reason for the meeting was to find out what the students wanted in it. Mr. Elle told the students that there would be all sorts of school activities.

There will be a school paper, a manual training shop, but there will be no Ag shop unless there is a big demand for one.

The auditorium and gymnasium will be combined but there is no plan for a swimming pool.

Mr. Elle said it would be up to the school board to make the decision whether the sophomores and freshmen would be able to finish at West Linn.

ANNUAL

The Annual subscriptions are now on sale in the student body office during the noon hour. Each subscription is $2.50 per copy.

The annual staff would like snapshots for the snap section of the publication. The snaps must be of West Linn students but needn't be taken at the high school. If you wish your snapshots back, write your name on the back of them. Turn them in to Betty Weibel or Miss Ringham.

Alden Rondeau, David Dorsey To Pilot W. L. Student Body

The election of Alden Rondeau as the student body president for the 1950-1951 school year climaxed a very exciting week of campaigning.

Alden is 17 years old and hails from Pete's Mountain. He has been a student at West Linn for three years, being active in the F. F. A. and the Letterman's Club. He has been outstanding in athletics, holding positions on the varsity basketball and football teams. "Aud," as his fellow students have nicknamed him, was very surprised and slightly speechless at the outcome of the elections. He was able to utter a few words to the effect that he was very, very happy.

David Dorsey, the new "Veep," comes from Lake Grove. He is quite interested in photography and is a member of the Camera club. He is also a photographer for the Annual. David has been playing basketball for the "B" squad for the past two years.

Lovilla Taylor, who will serve as secretary for the forthcoming year, is well-qualified for the job. She is the secretary of the junior class. Lovilla is a member of the swimming team and very active in several of the school clubs. Swimming is also an outside activity for "Lovey"; she is a member of the Multnomah Athletic Club swimming team and travels around the United States to attend swim meets with the team.

Robert Hoyt, who will be the assistant treasurer next year, is a sophomore from Lake Grove. Bob is a member of the band. Joan Hopp will be the student body treasurer next year.

Bud Atwood and Jane Culver will lead the school's yelling section at games and pep assemblies. Jane, who lives in Oswego, is a transfer from Kansas. She is an officer in the new Latin club; belongs to the Pep club and numerous other clubs and is also active in dramatics.

Bud Atwood, who resides in Willamette, is a member of the swimming team. His interests are in the out-of-doors. Fishing, hunting, and camping occupy his spare moments.

Mr. Tunnell was quite pleased with this year's student body elections. "Nice election, lots of good campaigning, lots of interest, just the way it ought to be," declared Mr. Tunnell.

Mr. Tunnell was quite pleased with this year's student body elections. "Nice election, lots of good campaigning, lots of interest, just the way it ought to be," declared Mr. Tunnell.

Mr. Tunnell was quite pleased with this year's student body elections. "Nice election, lots of good campaigning, lots of interest, just the way it ought to be," declared Mr. Tunnell.

Monthly Meeting Attended By Two

Joyce Heisler and Shirley Helms attended the monthly meeting of the Clackamas county Red Cross Council held at Milwaukie March 2. Contributions have been asked from the schools for the Navajo Indians, for whom a welfare drive was set up by the state Junior Red Cross.

Any of the following would be welcome as donations: clothing of all kinds (which definitely does not have to be new), scraps of material, thread, candles, books, pencils, toys and paper.

How about contributing, kids? Let's put West Linn on top in this drive!

MRS. ALLEN REED, INSTRUCTOR of homemaking, in the West Linn high school, is shown with the group of girls, top photo, who presented an informative program for the Parent-Teachers organization held in the library of the high school recently. From left, front row, are Sharon Stein, Virginia Jones, Nancy Mabee, Janet Sherman, Dotta Granquist, Elsie Critchfield, Florine Eisele, Louise Rickard, Priscilla Horning. Back row, Shirley Shivers, Joyce Shaber, Beverly

Mistereck, Mrs. Reed, Stella Rolison, Shirley Moser and La Vonne Misterek. John Adrian, West Linn, lower left, is being served by Mrs. Anna McLarty, at the close of a business meeting. Guests, lower right, are shown at the refreshment table. They are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Elle, Oswego, and Mrs. H. A. Scholer, Lake Grove. Mr. Pix photos by Adrian 29832, 29769 and 29770.