JONATHAN NEUMANN
SCIENCE

Name: Jonathan Neumann

Teaching: AP Environmental Science (APES) and Biology

Graduated from: Charles Jordan High School in Durham, North Carolina. I received my Bachelor in Arts in Interdisciplinary Studies (biology, geology, and anthropology) from University of North Carolina -Chapel Hill in 1990. I received my Medical Degree from Portland State University this past June.

In high school you were known for: Having a large afro, wearing pajamas to school, driving a goob, having three jobs, being a contrarian, and generally being a goob/dweeb.

Hobbies: None - I am a new teacher! Who has time for hobbies? But really, I like to attempt to be handy around the house (because if you can't be handsome, you might as well be handy), brew Kombucha, read, garden, hike and generally be outside.

One random fact that most people don't know about you: There is a silent and invisible 'g' in my last name. Also, I was in a professional clogging troupe when I was 10 & 11 years old (The Apple Chill Cloggers) - Shuck that Oyster and Dosey-Do!

HANNAH WILEY
PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Name: Hannah Wiley

Graduated from: Aloha High School in 2000.

In high school, you were known for: Being a three sport athlete.

Hobbies: Singing in the car as loud as I can, watching cheesy movies, and journaling.)

One random fact that most people don't know about you: I have five older sisters... and one brother.

Name: Jonathan Peachey

Age: 26

Teaching: Spanish and ESL

Graduated from: West Linn High School Class of 1999! Went to Western Oregon University - Class of 2003! Taught at Wood Middle School for three years. Worked at Willamette Primary School and all over the district last year. Currently a graduate student at Lewis & Clark

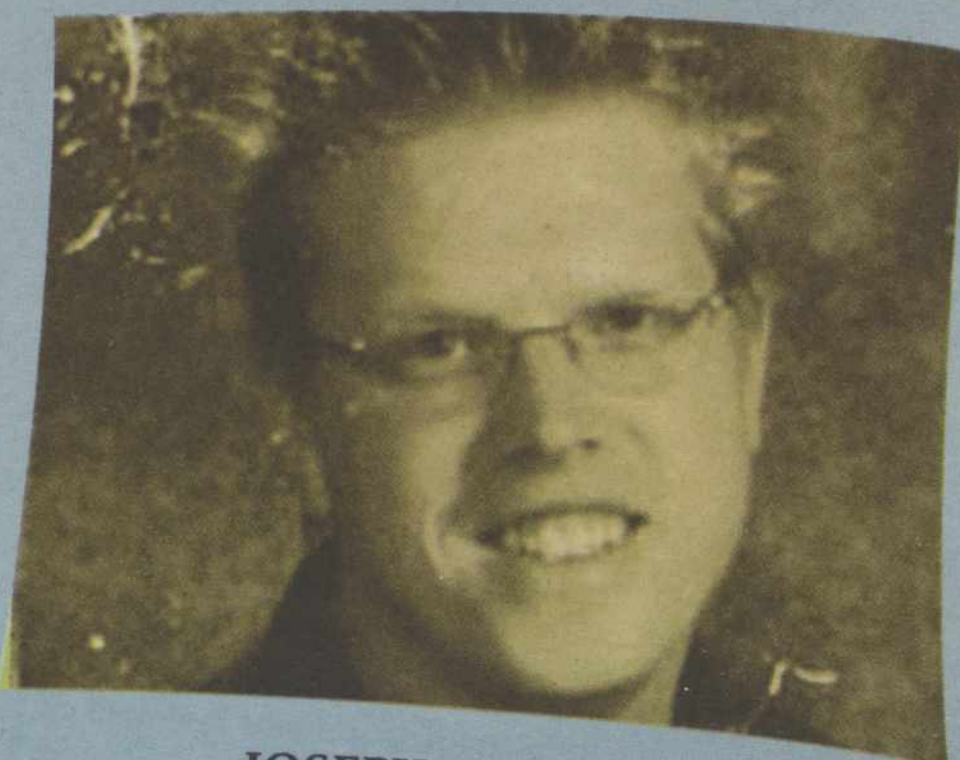

In high school, you were known for: Won most inspirational senior award, Academics 3.9, Spanish, Music (sang "Brown Eyed Girl" to the May Day queen; good luck finding that video.)

Hobbies: I like having a variety in my life! Running, skiing, snowboarding, jet skiing, snowmobiling, surfing, hiking, camping, traveling, going to concerts, going to the beach, cars, Park City Utah, dining out with friends, fall football, The Ducks, taking classes, laying in the fake sun-LOL, hanging with my sister and nephew, GO LIONS!

One random fact that most people don't know about you: I lived in Spain in 2001 — I just got my braces off before school after four years! I have Obsessive Compulsive Disorder and IKEA rocks!
