

Joseph Leckey, senior, is named Mr. WLHS. Along with the title came a check for nearly $1,000 to give to the Make-A-Wish Foundation, the charity of his choice. Each contestant was able to choose which charity he wanted the victory money to go to if he won.

All photos by Hannah Zaayer

MR. WEST LINN HIGH SCHOOL

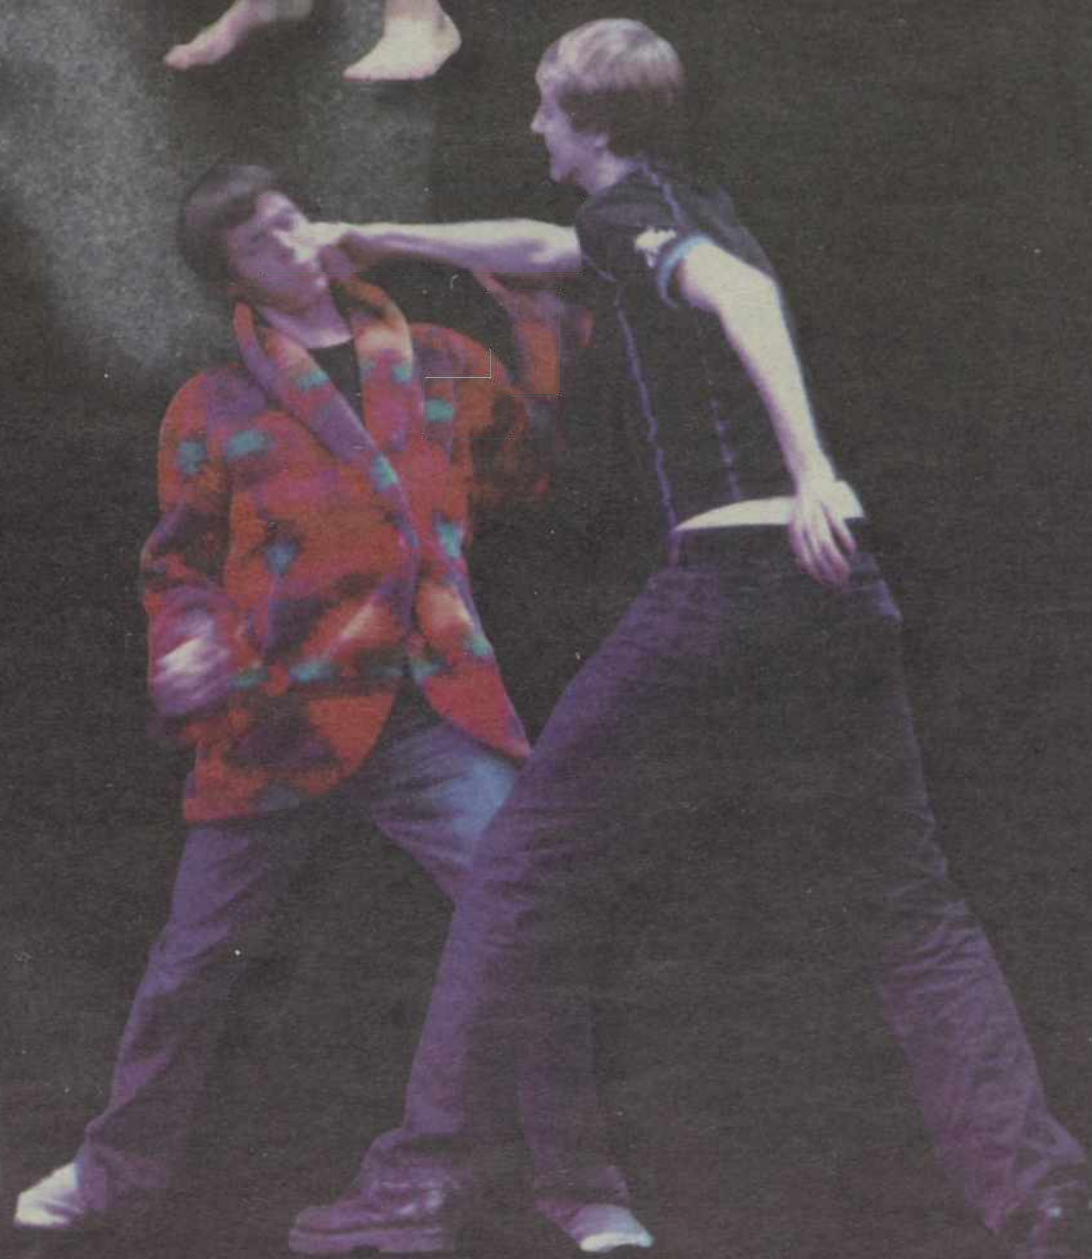

Rikki Meyers models during the swimsuit portion of the Mr. WLHS pageant fundraiser. The annual pageant was held on Dec. 6 in the auditorium with students and teachers deciding the eventual winner.

Seniors Gabriel Welp and Jeffrey Houston perform a ribbon dance for the talent portion of Mr. WLHS which was held on Dec. 7. The duo didn't make it to the top but helped raise money for local charities by performing at the event.

Charles Corbett dances with Kate Tolan for the Mr. WLHS formalwear competition. Other categories on which they were judged were, swimwear, question and answer, group and individual dances and talent.

Seniors Thomas Elliott and Troy Spivey perform a mock fight scene for the talent portion of Mr. WLHS. Each contestant was required to demonstrate a specific talent as part of the competition.